The Great Holocaust!

HORROR UPON HORROR!

Great Loss of Life!

TERRIBLE SUFFERING!

Appeals for Aid!

DETROIT, Mich., October 14.—The news which has been received to-day confirms the previous reports as to the wide-spread desolation inflicted by the fires in various parts of the State from Port Huron to Point Aix Borques. The shore is almost deserted, the inhabitants being burned out and obliged to flee, saving nothing.

Particulars of the Manistee and Holland conflagration also give a more disastrous aspect than the first reports. All the energies of the people of the city are now directed to aiding the sufferers in our own State, and contributions of money, provisions and clothing are being made.

The Detroit Free Press Company to-day sent to the committee a check for five hundred dollars, and the employes of the same office contributed nearly $100 more. Senator Chandler and E. B. Ward each contributed $1,000. The employes of the Tribune gave over $100. The Central Relief Committee sent a special agent to Manistee with $5,000 worth of supplies and $1,000 in cash; they also sent an agent to Lake Huron with clothing and supplies. The committee established a central depot for the reception of clothing, provisions, &c., and are receiving liberal contributions. Collections will be taken up in all the churches to-morrow for the aid of the Michigan sufferers in most of the cities throughout the States. Relief committees have been formed, and the good work is being pushed with energy, and immense sums of ready money must be raised to enable the destitute farmers and others to rebuild and purchase the necessary tools and stock

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 14.—The Manistee Relief Committee of Grand Rapids congratulate the noble people of Detroit for the car loads of contributions which arrived at Grand Haven this evening. Lansing also responds with a car load of flour and provisions. General Cutcheon, of Manistee, with his wife and children, has just arrived. He is bereft of house, furniture, books, papers and every memento of his past life, and all the clothing left to him is now worn by himself and family. The great multitude at Manistee is in the same condition, without shelter, bedding, clothing or food. Mr. Cutcheon says there are four thousand people who need immediate help. He wishes to say to the people of Michigan that when the people of Manistee heard of the Chicago calamity they were in despair, but have just heard of the generous response for Manistee, and feel as if there was yet something to live for. He advises the people to send solid uncooked food, such as flour, meats and groceries; next send bedding for the women and children to sleep upon; next send winter clothing, for the women only escaped in their night clothes, with their children in their arms. These want clothing. It must be remembered that Manistee is away from a farming community or from farmers' supplies. She is also without railroad connection, and consequently her case is not only a needy one, but also perilous. Luckily a government vessel is at hand, with an able and brave sailor in charge, to convey contributions from Grand Haven. At Manistee there is an efficient committee organized, with Dr. Ellis at its head, a prudent and energetic man. At Grand Haven Hon. T. W. Ferry is in charge. The people of the State may rest assured that their contributions will be faithfully and judiciously applied. The railroads carry all relief for Manistee free of expense. Consign every package to Senator Ferry, and mark "Manistee Relief." At Grand Haven everything will be packed securely in warehouses until shipped. One thing more they want at Manistee—carpenters' tools. Every tool was destroyed. They have plenty of lumber, and with tools, nails and glass can soon erect shanties. Send these. The insurance of Manistee was mostly in Chicago and Milwaukee companies.

MILWAUKEE, October 15.—Late accounts from Northern Wisconsin confirm all previous reports and rumors. The loss of life in the neighborhood of the burned city of Peshtego will reach over 1,500. Fifteen per cent. of those injured cannot recover. The fire tornado was heard at a distance like the roaring of the sea. Balls of fire were soon observed to fall like meteors in different parts of the town, igniting whatever they touched. People rushed with their children in their arms for a place of safety, but the storm of fire was upon them and enveloped them in flames, smoke, burning sand and cinders, and those unable to reach the river were suffocated and roasted alive. This terrible scene happened on Sunday night, the 8th of October, already made famous by the Chicago horror.

A member of the relief committee sent from Milwaukee with supplies, says the only survivors were those who were fortunate enough to reach the water, many throwing themselves into the mill pond and clinging to floating logs. A number of these were drowned by being thrown from the logs by maddened horses and cattle that rushed into the water. The fiery cyclone swept over a tract of country eight or ten miles wide. Every building, fence and all the timber was licked up clear by the tongue of fire.

The town of Peshtego numbered 2,000, one thousand of whom perished on the fearful night.

Reports from the east shore of Green Bay place the loss of life fully as high as at Peshtego. The same account states that the immediate wants of the people are supplied, but large amounts of provisions and clothing will be required for the coming winter. Mayor Ludington, of Milwaukee, has published the following appeal for aid:

Milwaukee, October 14.—The calamity that has befallen our State and some of our neighboring States are truly appalling. Over 1,500 men, women and children have been burned to death in Wisconsin alone. Their houses and farms are to a large extent entirely destroyed, the very soil having been burned and destroyed, with all their autumn and root crops. They are utterly destitute, and will require full support at least till another season. Seven counties in our own State are thus in great part utterly destroyed. Whole regions of country in Western Michigan are in the same condition, and these fires are still raging and destroying. Milwaukee is doing all she can do. By her close neighborhood to Chicago she was enabled to send large quantities of supplies into that devastated city during the progress of the fire, feeding her firemen and exhausted citizens. Vast numbers of Chicago sufferers are now filling our houses and public buildings, and are ministered to. Hundreds of tons of provisions, and clothing, and stoves, and other needful articles have been sent to Chicago, to northern Wisconsin and to western Michigan. We are doing our best, but the amount of suffering in our own State is beyond our power alone to assuage. We appeal to the public for aid. We will be the dispenser of supplies to the sufferers in Wisconsin and Western Michigan. We have made every necessary arrangement to accomplish these purposes with economy. All contributions in money should be sent to Mr. Alexander Mitchell, banker; all contributions, such as clothing, bedding and other necessary supplies, may be directed to Harris N. Ludington, Mayor.

—The Sub Committee on Ku Klux have examined forty-two witnesses at Huntsville, Ala., including several of the principal public men on the Democratic side, who regard the country as peaceful. On the other side many persons, including negroes, testified to acts of violence.

CUSTOMS TREATY SIGNED.

PARIS, October 14.—The Bien Public, the Ministerial organ, announces that Bismarck and Pouyer Quertier yesterday signed the customs treaty between France and Germany. The financial portion of the convention is definitively concluded by the signatures of the two ministers. That part which relates to the regulation of customs must be submitted to the German Reichsrath for ratification. With the conclusion of the treaty, Bismarck agrees to release the bankers who were guarantees for the payment of the indemnity, and accepts as sufficient official guarantee Thiers and Pouyer Quertier. The financial portion of the treaty provides that the balance of the indemnity money remaining due by France shall be paid in specie bills to the amount of eighty millions francs every fortnight until the entire balance is liquidated, such payment to be commenced on the 15th day of January next. It is further stipulated that six of the Departments of France now occupied by German troops shall be evacuated immediately. Thirty thousand German troops are to remain in France pending the liquidation of the indemnity, but it is agreed that if the terms of the convention are faithfully carried out, that the number will be materially reduced at the end of six months from the signing of the treaty.

THE ALGERIAN INSURRECTION.

Advices from Algeria state that the natives in the northern part of that province of Constantina had risen against the French, and were in open hostility. Troops had been dispatched to the locality of the trouble, but their number is not sufficient to quell the insurrection. It is probable that this new outbreak will demand the dispatching of additional troops from France to the colony.

CUSTOMS TREATY SIGNED.

PARIS, October 15.—Thiers has formally announced to the Legislative Committee that the customs treaty of Alsace and Lorraine is signed, and now only awaits ratification. He states that the principle of reciprocity is recognized; that the payment of four and a half milliards indemnity is to be completed before the end of March; that the evacuation of French territory will commence within a fortnight after the ratification of the treaty, and that Germany cedes to France a small strip of territory.

The Official Journal says the treaty just concluded with Germany consists of three separate conventions—one territorial, rectifying frontiers; one financial, providing for the payment of the indemnity and involving the withdrawal of the German troops from France, and the other relating to customs. The last stipulates that the products of Alsace and Lorraine shall be permitted to enter France free for twelve months, and accords the same privilege to the products of France entering those territories.

RELIEF FOR CHICAGO.

PARIS October, 15.—A meeting of citizens of the United States, now in Paris, was held last night, in response to a call from the American Minister to take action for the relief of Chicago. Mr. Washburne presided and made an eloquent appeal. Speeches were also made by General Banks, J. Meredith Read, American Consul General, and Mr. Tofer, of Georgia. The sum of 200,000 francs was subscribed on the spot.

A CAUTION.

BERLIN, October 14.—The Kreuz Zeitung of this date contains a caution against giving too ready credence to unofficial statements in regard to the conclusion of the customs treaty with France. It expresses a doubt whether the negotiations have virtually terminated.

PAPAL INFALLIBILITY.

MUNICH, October 14.—There was an important debate to-day in the Lower House of the Bavarian Reichsrath on the subject of Papal infallibility. The Minister of Worship and Public Instruction, replying to the interpellation by a number of deputies, heretofore reported in these dispatches, said that the State had at all times the right to make changes in the laws relating to the Church. The Church having declared a change of principles, and infallibility being a doctrine dangerous to the State, the goverment had resolved to protect any and all of its citizens who could not accept the infallibility of the Pope. The government would still consider such persons as Catholics, and it would oppose any encroachment by the Church upon the principles of the civil constitution. Moreover, the Minister declared that the sentiment of the King and Council of State favored a separation of the religious and political branches of the government and a complete independence of each other.

THE EMPRESS' DONATION.

BERLIN, October 15.—The Empress Augusta, gratefully remembering the kindly feeling shown by the Americans for Germany during the last war, sends 1,000 thalers to the committee formed in this city for the relief of the sufferers in Chicago.

GREAT BRITAIN.

CHICAGO RELIEF FUND.

LONDON, October 14.—The Times this morning states that the Lord Mayor has received £17,000 as the result of two days' subscriptions to the Chicago relief fund. Lists have been opened for contributions in Birmingham, Bradford, Hanley and other towns in the manufacturing districts.

THE RECENT CONFLAGRATIONS.

The Times has a leader reviewing the Chicago conflagration and the great fires now ravaging the Northwest, and advising prompt action by the United States authorities in suppressing the attempted Fenian invasion of Manitoba. It draws the conclusion that England and Englishmen are herein furnished with every incentive to alleviate the calamities in the west.

OHIO.

THE STATE ELECTION.

CINCINNATI, October 15.—The Commercial this morning figures Young, Republican, elected to the Senate by seven hundred and twenty majority; also the election of both Wilson and Taft, Republicans, to the House, making the House delegation stand five Republicans and five Democrats.

BALTIMORE.

The Episcopal Convention.

BALTIMORE, October 14.—In the Episcopal Convention, Mr. Jackson, of Maine, was excused from serving on the Committee on Uniformity of Ritual.

Dr. Haight, of New Jersey, said the Committee on Canons were ready to report on the subject of the change of Canon 20, Title 1, Of Use of Book of Common Prayer.

Dr. Paddock then read the report, detailing the proposed changes of omission and addition, and concluding with the recommendation of the following resolution:

Resolved, The House of Bishops concurring, that Canon 20, of Title 1, entitled "Of Use of Book of Common Prayer," be amended to read as follows: Canon 20, of Use of Book of Common Prayer—Every minister shall on occasions of public worship use the Book of Common Prayer, as the same is or may be established by authority of the General Convention of the Church, and this rule shall be understood to prohibit all additions to and omissions from the prescribed order of said book, except in the cases prescribed by section 14, of Canon 13, of Title 1; Provided that on other occasions than on Sundays and mornings of those week days for which a special service is ordered, and at all times in the mission stations and other places than parish churches, where the prescribed order of morning and evening prayer cannot be used to the edification of other services, it may be used, compiled only from the Book of Common Prayer; but no such decorations shall be permissable, except in emergencies, without the approbation of the Ecclesiastical authority of the Diocese.

Dr. Goodwin moved an amendment with a further proviso that the canon does not apply in terms to congregations worshiping.

The report and amendment were made the special order for Wednesday.

The Committee on Canons, to whom was referred the memorial from the Diocese of Texas and California, and the question relating to the relief of dioceses too large for the supervision of single bishops, made a report with the recommendation that Clause 2, Section 15, Canon 13, Title 1, be amended to read as follows: A diocese without a bishop, or of which a bishop is for a time under a disability by reason of a judicial sentence, or any part of a diocese in which the Bishop of such diocese by reason of its extent or other physical impediment cannot in person duly exercise the functions of his office, it may, by act of the convention of such diocese, and with the consent in the latter case of the Bishop thereof, be placed under the full Episcopal charge and authority of a Bishop of another diocese, or of a missionary Bishop, who shall thereupon be authorized to perform within such diocese or such part of diocese all the duties and offices of Bishop thereof until such vacancy had been supplied or such disqualification has been removed, or until the act of such convention has been revoked, and in the latter case until the consent of the Bishop of such diocese has been also withdrawn; provided, that in such last named case the Bishop or Missionary Bishop shall exercise such jurisdiction within the part of the diocese placed under his Episcopal charge as the act of a diocesan convention may provide.

The report was passed over without action, and a message from the House of Bishops authorizing the use in this church of the hymnal, reported by the Joint Committee of the General Convention, was taken up for consideration. The question being on concurring in the message from the bishops, Dr. Hume, of Pennsylvania, remarked that the resolutions of the House of Bishops not only authorized the use of the hymnal as reported by the committee, but forbid the use of any other hymns in the public worship of the church.

After debate, Dr. Adams, of Wisconsin, offered an amendment that the use of the hymnal be provisional until the session of the next General Assembly

A protracted and general debate followed until three o'clock, when, without taking a vote, the Convention adjourned till Monday at ten o'clock.

ST. LOUIS.

Trouble Among the Indians.

ST. LOUIS, October 14.—A dispatch received states that Mr. Kincaid, clerk of the Creek Indian Agency, reports that there is great excitement throughout the Indian Territory, in consequence of a quarrel among the Creeks, and thinks that a war between Cochoka, the lawful chief, and his rebellious subjects is a foregone conclusion. The two parties met at Okmulgee on Saturday last, armed to the teeth, and the agents had extreme difficulty in preventing a collision. If the United States troops are not sent there immediately a terrible fight will certainly ensue.

CHICAGO REFUGEES.

About one hundred more Chicago refugees arrived here, being provided for at the Rink and the Mullanphy Home. The cash subscriptions here now amount to $120,000, and the Soliciting Committees are still actively at work. All provisions now in store here will be shipped immediately, and a large lot of medical and hospital supplies will be sent at once to Miss Phoebe Cousins, of the St. Louis committee. The Ladies' Committee are very active, making and collecting clothing for the women and children, providing employment for those here, and properly caring for the sick and distressed. Many have already found employment, and places will be procured for both male and female.

DR. MEDLICOTT'S CASE.

The trial of Dr. Medlicott, at Garnet, Kansas, for poisoning Isaac M. Ruth, progresses slowly. The prosecution expect to prove a criminal intimacy between Mrs. Ruth and Medlicott, and that the latter was in Ruth's room when he died, and removed all evidence of a death-struggle by straightening the body and arranging the bed clothes.

THE FIRES EXTINGUISHED.

CHICAGO, October 14.—It commenced raining about twelve o'clock last night and has continued up to this hour (6 P. M.,) and looks as if it might continue another eighteen hours. The effect of the storm has been to extinguish about all the flames that arose from the smouldering ruins of the great fire. The fires that prevailed in the immense piles of coal scattered all along the river have been about all extinguished. This will result in the saving of many thousand tons of coal, which, if the rain had not come, would have been consumed. The result has also given confidence to our citizens, as from the long continued drought every building was as dry as a tinder box, and continually liable to ignition from many causes. It will also afford a full supply of rain water, which will be satisfactory, from the condition of the water works, which are not yet in working order.

THE CUSTOM HOUSE VAULT.

The vault of the custom house was opened to-day. It contained one million dollars in gold and two millions in greenbacks. The gold was melted into an almost solid mass, and, of course, is safe in the shape of bullion. The greenbacks were entirely consumed beyond recognition. Of course the greenbacks belonged to the Government, and are no loss.

THE LEGISLATURE.

An informal joint convention of the Legislature of Illinois assembled at Standard Hall, in this city, this afternoon at one o'clock. The joint body came here for the purpose of inviting a committee of the citizens to meet with them to make such suggestions as the necessities of the present condition of Chicago seemed to demand. Lieutenant Governor Dougherty presided over the Senate. Mayor Mason occupied the platform with him.

Hon. John A. Logan, on behalf of a committee appointed at a meeting of citizens, presented a report from that committee in the shape of certain suggestions, that the lien held on the Illinois and Michigan Canal for three million dollars by the city of Chicago should be assumed by the State, as provided for in the Internal Improvement Act passed at the recent session of the Legislature, and that the amount be paid to the city at once, and that the State should at once provide for the support of the various charitable institutions now sustained by the city and county, including the county Insane Hospital, &c. The report was discussed by General Logan—who spoke eloquently—S. S. Hay, Wm. B. Ogden, Senator Fuller, Samuel W. Fuller, Rev. William Alvin Bonlett, M. F. Tuley, and others, and was then referred to the joint convention for their consideration when the two bodies meet in Springfield.

It was also suggested that the State taxes be remitted for 1871, and that a new assessment, in accordance with the present condition of affairs, be made.

THE OUTSTANDING CONTRACTS.

The Board of Trade, to-day, passed a resolution that all outstanding contracts be settled on the average prices of Saturday, October 7th.

BANKS REOPENING.

The First National Bank of Chicago had a meeting of its stock holders this afternoon, and voted to open on Monday and proceed with their business at once; paying all depositors, on demand, to the full extent of their deposits.

FREE PASSES ON RAILROADS.

Passes are being issued by the relief committee to the utterly destitute to all points on the Union Pacific where such persons can find work and shelter. All these passes will hereafter be signed by Geo. P. Pullman, Chairman, and countersigned by agents appointed by each of the railroads which receive them here. The roads forming parts of the lines leading from Chicago are respectfully requested to notify the chairman of the committee of their willingness to honor such passes. R. B. MASON, Mayor.

UNINJURED BANK.

The Union Stock Yard National Bank, located at the Union Stock Yards, was not disturbed by the fire, and has had no interruption of its business. Its customers are all live stock men, who have not suffered to any extent by the great conflagration. The bank pays all its obligations in currency or New York exchange.

THE MAIL SERVICE.

CHICAGO, October 15.—The following order has been this day issued by Colonel Wood, Assistant Superintendent of Railroad Mail Service:

Office of Assistant Superintendent of Railroad Mail Service, Chicago, October 15.—To all Postmasters, Railway Postal Clerks and Route Agents: The order of October 12 to send all mail matter to the railroad postal cars and larger offices for distribution, is hereby revoked. All mails are ordered to be sent the same as previous to said order. Sufficient postal cars with postal clerks are now at work in this city to distribute all the mails as heretofore distributed at this office, without any delay. All railway postal clerks and route agents are required to report for duty at their respective offices every morning until further orders. All leaves of absence are revoked. To you the country looks for a prompt distribution and delivery of their mail. In view of the great calamity in this great distribution point of the West, redouble your exertions, and they shall not be disappointed. Having taken the responsibility of removing from the Post Office here all the mails and registered letters, thereby saving them from destruction, let no effort now be spared in distributing and delivering them promptly, with all other mail matter coming into your hands. Respectfully,

[Signed] GEORGE W. WOOD,
Asst. Supt. R. R. Mail Service.

FURIOUS GALE.

A furious gale prevailed in the city last night. It became almost a hurricane by twelve o'clock, but subsided before morning. It caused much alarm to the citizens, especially those residing in the vicinity of the late fire. Fire brands were blown about in every direction, and skeleton walls were prostrated in quick succession, shaking buildings in the vicinity from foundation to apex. Much alarm prevailed. People were rushing into the streets from their dwellings, in many instances fearful that their houses would be prostrated and they buried beneath the ruins. The excitement and alarm was scarcely less than on the night of the great disaster. Fortunately it had rained for twenty-four hours previous, and this prevented any conflagration. As the result of the tornado, the Sabbath has been recognized in a marked manner in all the churches left standing. In many instances two and three congregations of different religious tenets have worshiped in the same edifices at different hours. A marked religious feeling prevailed among the worshipers. Of course the theme of all the preachers was the great calamity. All spoke hopefully of the future of Chicago, both in her material and spiritual growth.

MEETING OF BANKERS.

A meeting of the officers of the National Banks of Chicago, was held at the office of the Third National Bank, 436 Wabash Avenue, on Saturday evening, October 15th, at six o'clock, for the purpose of conferring with Mr. Hurlburt, Controller of the Currency. J. J. Irwin Pearce, President of the Third National Bank, was called to the chair, and Henry Greenbaum, of the German National Bank, was elected Secretary. A full exchange of views touching the condition of the Chicago banks as affected by the late great fire was had, and it was ascertained, upon a comparison of liabilities and resources, that all the banks were perfectly sound, and should resume business at once. The only delay asked by any of the banks was for sufficient time to convey their safes from the ruins to the new places of business, and to arrange their books and office furniture.

After a general discussion, in which the Controller participated, on motion of Mr. Blair, President of the First National Bank, the resolution heretofore passed to pay fifteen per cent. cash immediately was unanimously rescinded.

Mr. Coolbaugh, President of the Union National Bank, offered the following resolution, which, after full discussion, was also unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The books and treasures of all the National Banks in the city, the safety of which was to some extent uncertain when the resolutions of the 12th inst. were adopted, have been recovered intact, and

WHEREAS, a careful examination of our assets since that time has convinced us not only of our entire solvency, but of our ability to carry on our business as usual without further delay, therefore,

Resolved, That all the National Banks of this city will open their doors at the temporary offices now occupied by them for the transaction of business on the 17th, at ten o'clock A. M.

To the Public: Having ascertained from personal investigation that the National Banks of Chicago are solvent institutions, and that, notwithstanding the late fire, they are able and ready to pay all just claims on presentation, I hereby announce that the National Banks of Chicago will open their doors for the transaction of business as usual on Tuesday, the 17th inst., at 10 A. M., and I hereby express my belief in their ability to meet all their legitimate engagements on demand.

[Signed,] W. R. HURLBURT,
Comptroller of the Currency.

THE WISCONSIN FIRES.

The latest reports from the recent terrible fires in northern Illinois and Michigan represent the loss of life as being fearful. Some seven to eight hundred dead bodies had already been discovered, and it is believed that the number will reach fully one thousand and the wounded fully two hundred. This comprises three-fourths of the population.

RELIEF FOR THE SUFFERERS.

QUINCY, ILL., October 14.—The work of raising subscriptions for the relief of the Chicago sufferers is being actively prosecuted. In this city every ward is being canvassed by committees of ladies and gentlemen. About $70,000 in private and municipal subscriptions have been raised, and four car loads of clothing, bedding, boots and shoes have been collected and forwarded. A ton of clothing is now ready for shipment. The work of relief will be prosecuted under the direction of Mayor Rowland, as long as donations are wanted by the Chicago Committee. The city, thus far, has done nobly.

ST. LOUIS, October 14.—A dispatch from Fort Scott, Kansas, says: Eighteen car loads coal, sweet potatoes, flour, clothing, etc., left here for Chicago.

CINCINNATI, October 14.—The contributions of this city to the Chicago relief fund amount to $225,000.

LANCASTER, Pa., October 14.—The County Commissioners will probably appropriate twenty-five thousand dollars to the Chicago fund.

NEW YORK, October 15.—The Chicago relief collections in the churches here to-day were $70,000.

In Philadelphia the cash subscriptions yesterday were $26,369.

The Utica subscriptions reach $30,000.

TRIAL OF "LIFE RAFTS."

U. S. Supreme Court.

NOTES TO BE REPLACED.

WASHINGTON, October 14, 1871.

THE CHICAGO DEPOSITORY.

Secretary Boutwell received a dispatch from Chicago, which states that the safes in the depository were opened, and about thirty-five thousand dollars of mutilated currency in the small safe was found in good condition. The rest of the currency and all the books and papers are completely destroyed. The coin is badly melted.

TRIAL OF "LIFE RAFTS."

The Board of Inspectors of Steamboats had a trial of "life rafts" on the river yesterday. The only raft that could not be broken or sunk by people being crowded upon it was the "Ingersoll Metallic Life Raft," of New York, and it was adopted. In the "life saving dress" Prof. Merriman was most successful. The board will probably adjourn on Tuesday.

DEFALCATION MADE GOOD.

The defaulting pension agent of New York city, G. M. Van Buren, has made good his entire default of twelve thousand dollars.

WASHINGTON, October 15, 1871.

U. S. SUPREME COURT.

The adjourned term of the United States Supreme Court commences to-morrow. Among the important cases to be decided on is one from Kentucky, involving the constitutionality of the civil rights act; another involving the constitutionality of the so-called "Drake amendment," relating to the effect of pardons in the Court of Claims; and another, involving the decision of the disputed rights to the property of the Presbyterian Church North and South; another involving the question as to the binding force of notes given for slaves before the issuance of the emancipation proclamation. The decision in the latter case will turn on the question whether the provision of the Georgia constitution in prohibiting the enforcement of any debt, the consideration of which was slaves or the hire thereof, is in contravention of the article of the National Constitution declaring that no State shall make laws impairing the obligation of contracts. The opinions on the constitutionality of the legal tender act, withheld last May, will be made public. A case is expected to be argued testing the constitutionality of the common tax, on which the judgment of the court is yet to be recorded, though in a somewhat similar case the constitutionality has been upheld by a divided court.

THE WEATHER.

Probabilities.—The barometer will probably rise in New England and on the lakes and southwestward, but cloudy weather and local rains continue throughout the Atlantic States. —Three separate attempts at incendiarism were made at London, Ontario, Canada, on Friday night.

—The recent freshets in Maine have caused great damage. Railway transportation has been delayed.

—An address was issued at Saratoga by a large number of prominent Democrats, repudiating Tweed and denouncing the late Democratic State Convention.

—Early on Saturday morning a passenger train on the Jeffersonville, Madison and Indianapolis Railroad ran off the track and down an eight feet embankment, near a station about thirty miles from Louisville. Nobody hurt.

—The fire at Manisto, Michigan, last Sunday night, was very destructive. The loss is estimated at $1,000,000, on which there is an insurance of but $80,000. The inhabitants are in a very destitute condition, and an appeal has been made for aid.

THOMAS W. MCWATTY, of Jefferson county, Ga., died at his residence in that county on Saturday, the 23d ultimo, in the 96th year of his age. For many years he devoted himself to the study of hieroglyphics, and was confident that he had discovered a key by which the apparent contradictions in sacred history could be explained, and all its mysteries laid open to the commonest understanding. He at one time had progressed so far in his investigations as to prepare for the press a volume containing his discoveries, but for some reason the matter was temporarily abandoned, and never afterwards seriously entertained.

PETROLEUM at Antwerp 51.

BONDS at Frankfort, 95¾@95⅞c.

GOLD closed in New York on Saturday at 114¼@114⅜.

WE had the pleasure on Saturday of a visit from the Hon. J. S. Rutan, State Senator from Beaver county.

THE Cincinnati, Commercial seems to have taken up the cause of Mr. Horace Greeley, in serious earnest, and is advocating his presidential aspirations with considerable vigor.

WE are glad to welcome the Chicago, Journal back to our exchange list. It shows signs of the terrible calamity which has devastated, but not overcome the great metropolis of the lakes. But it is as full of indomitable Chicagoism as ever.

WE are sorry to learn that William Oden Hughart Esq., President of the Pittsburgh, Washington and Baltimore Railrod, was confined to his room by indisposition a part of last week. The cause of his sickness was over work. It is expected that he will be able to attend to business in a day or two.

COLONEL RUSSELL ERRETT, Chairman of the State Republican Executive Committee, returned from Philadelphia on Saturday, crowned with the laurels of victory, No better canvass was ever made in Pennsylvania than that which was made by the Colonel this fall. There is no better tactician in the country. For organizing political victories, commend us to Colonel Errett.

PRIVATE DISPATCHES from Beaver inform us that Dr. Shurlock of that county is defeated for Assembly by one hundred and seventy-five majority for his opponent. Our Butler county friends voted pretty generallyagainst him, casting their ballots for Lusk. Mickey is elected by 294 majority, with our other two candidates. In Beaver county the Republican vote was over five hundred short, whilst the Democrats polled within one hundred of their full strength. This is the old story, and has given the usual result. With a full poll we have eight hundred majority in the district composed of Beaver, Butler and Washington counties.

IT IS ANNOUNCED that as soon as the telegraph flashed throughout the land the terrible news of the Chicago calamity, the thieves from the large cities of the East took the first trains for the scene of the disaster, hoping amidst the appalling grief of the stricken city to reap a rich reward of plunder. We are gratified to learn that large numbers of such, having been found suspiciously prowling around among the ruins, have been shot and killed by the police, to whom many of them were known. Among them we find the names of such pinks of propriety as the notorious Barney Aaron, the prize fighter and pick-pocket, Dutch Heinrich, the bank thief, Jack Daley, George Butts and other well known thieves, whose occupation at Chicago appears not to have been appreciated by the saddened people. The country is well rid of such profligates, who hang like carrion crows, waiting their opportunity to pounce upon the unfortunate, and devour their substance. The Tribune wisely says that the news of their death is almost too good to be true.

NEW YORK.

Senator Conkling's speech at Albany a day or two ago was a masterly stroke of eloquence, while it was a compendium of Republican arguments, and facts bearing on the immediate issues in New York. He spoke of the great responsibility imposed upon the officers of that State, representing as they do the interests of five millions of beings, a nation almost in itself, and of the urgent necessity of wheeling the great commonwealth into line with the Republican phalanx who believe in the sentiment that the office holders of the country should be held to a "thorough and rigorous accountability." He pointed out the evils of Tammany and the controlling influence they exert throughout the State, and called upon the people to arrest the tide of villainy and misrule, which had been growing like the deadly Upas tree, and spreading its vile poisons abroad among the people. So powerful has this organization, generally known as Tammany, become, that it threatens the very foundations of morality and justice, by permeating with its noxious vitality all classes of society, until it became actually dangerous to both life and property to oppose it. Such an influence must be broken, or it will one day aspire to rule with all the force of a tyrant, and eventually tear down the image of liberty and set upon the broken pedestal the dreadful crown of anarchy. Mr. Conkling reviewed the broken promises of Democracy at their Rochester Convention, and held up to the people the Democratic expression upon the "New Departure" as illustrated by the manner of that party at the recent elections in Philadelphia, where a colored man, for exercising his right, given to him by the Fifteenth Amendment, which the Democracy professes to have accepted, was not safe upon the streets, but was beaten and mutilated whenever seen by the vile, drunken minions of "pure Democracy."

AFTER THE STORM

The calm succeeds. Chicago, though sadly, terribly scourged, has seen the worst, and has already begun to reckon up the loss, and make ready to repair it. It is ascertained that a large amount of the insurance money will be paid, probably full one half; creditors are sending their unfortunate debtors their bills receipted in many cases; the merchants, with undaunted spirit, instead of sitting down to mourn over their losses, are erecting sheds wherein to begin anew their business; the original feeling of utter prostration is passing off and giving place to lively gratitude that it is no worse; stricken ones, whose lives have been saved, are finding consolation in this fact, as they sadly recall the names of those of their friends, who have lost all, including life and a brave spirit is encompassing the city which will not be long in showing its vigor. The prompt and earnest assistance rendered by the country will, in a large measure, remove every actual source of present distress and go far towards building temporary homes for all who have been rendered houseless. As the winter approaches, many of the inhabitants will stray off to other places where they have relations and friends, and where they will be cared for until spring, when returning, marvellous again will be the growth of the wonderful city of the lakes.

All is not lost by any means, two-thirds of the city remain, all of its commercial interests are retained, its railroads will still be there to bring and take away the grain and other products of the rich surrounding country, lumber in large supply will find a ready market, and a year from this time we should not wonder to find the business of Chicago almost wholly revived. The work of rebuilding, which will begin at once, only to be interrupted by extreme cold weather, will afford work for thousands of mechanics and laborers, whilst the materials used, will, of them selves make business lively. Don't despair of Chicago, she will surprise the world again by her giant energies and recuperative powers. Her people have full faith in her destiny, and believing so, they will toil on, as if no disastrous conflagration had been suffered.

PROCLAMATION.

The President on Friday last issued the following proclamation under the authority of the Ku Klux, or, as it is legally known, the Enforcement Act, calling upon all disorderly persons or bands in certain counties in South Carolina to disperse to their homes within five days, which is the time named in the act. It is not intended to declare martial law, and call in the military power of the Government for the purpose of making arrests of lawless persons until it shall become absolutely necessary. It is yet hoped at Washington that peace may be restored to the turbulent portions of the South without resorting to the excessive powers conferred by the Enforcement Act, but unless a more peaceful disposition is shown in South Carolina, Georgia and some portions of Mississippi and Louisiana, by the relics of the Confederacy, and less of the fiendish spirit of diabolism which is disturbing those sections by continual acts of murder and arson perpetrated chiefly upon the freedmen and Unionists, the President will be obliged to use all the powers given to him, as this intolerant and devilish spirit must be crushed out.

One would imagine from the examples made of the members of the order in North Carolina, where Judge Hugh L. Bond, of the United States Circuit Court, has over five hundred on trial for acts of lawlessness and breaches of the peace, that some effect would have been made throughout the South, and that disorder would have ceased. But the contrary appears to have been the case; the order is still in operation. Some time ago the Government set about ferreting out the principal persons of the band in South Carolina, and so well has this been accomplished, that in some instances detectives unknown to each other as such, have gained admittance into the lodge rooms, and afterwards revealed all the secrets, with full lists of membership, etc., and named each other as members. The Government is in possession of the names of all the prominent members, and by the following proclamation gives them one more opportunity to disperse, lay down their arms, and become good, peaceable citizens.

But this will not be done, we are afraid, and numerous arrests will doubtless be made within the next sixty days. It was in anticipation of this, no doubt, that the proclamation was issued, the large number could not probably be arrested by the civil officers and in order to have the military at hand, to be called upon if required, in order to assist in enforcing the writs or warrants of arrest the five days notice has been given, at the expiration of which, martial law may be declared. We look for stirring times in South Carolina before many days, as the leaders in this far reaching conspiracy, which has, among other things, for its object, the control at the elections throughout the South in 1872, by a system of terrorism and intimidation of the Unionists and freedmen, will not yield without a struggle. But they will find that the power of the government is as mighty as ever, and their amazement at its knowledge of their secrets, members and movements will be ludicrous in the extreme.

By the President of the United States of America:

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, Unlawful combinations and conspiracies have long existed and do still exist in the State of South Carolina, for the purpose of depriving certain portions and classes of people of that State of the rights, privileges, immunities and protection named in the Constitution of the United States, and secured by the act of Congress appproved April 20, 1871, entitled "An act to enforce the provisions of the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States; and

Whereas, In certain parts of said State, to wit, in the counties of Spartensburg, York, Marion, Chester, Laurens, Newberry, Fairfield, Lancaster and Chesterfield, such combinations and conspiracies do so obstruct and hinder the execution of the laws of said State and of the United States as to deprive the people aforesaid of the rights, privileges, immunities and protection aforesaid, and do oppose and obstruct the laws of the United States and their due execution, and impede and obstruct the due course of justice under the same; and

Whereas, The constituted authorities of said State are unable to protect the people aforesaid in such rights within the said counties; and

Whereas, The combinations and conspiracies aforesaid, within the counties aforesaid, are organized and armed, are so numerous and powerful as to be able to defy the constituted authorities of said State and of the United States within the said State; and by reason of said causes, the conviction of such offenders and the preservation and safety of life and property have become impracticable in said counties; now, therefore, I, Ulysses S. Grant, President of the United States of America, do hereby command all persons composing the unlawful combinations and conspiracies aforesaid to disperse and retire peaceably to their homes within five days of the date hereof, and to deliver either to the Marshal of the United States for the District of South Carolina, or to any of his deputies, or to any military officers of the United States within said counties, all ammunition, uniforms, disguises, and other means and implements used, kept, possessed or controlled by them for carrying out the unlawful purposes for which the combinations or conspiracies are engaged.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington, the twelfth day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight [L. S.] hundred and seventy-one, and of the independence of the United States of America the ninety-sixth.

U. S. GRANT.

By the President:
HAMILTON FISH, Secretary of State.

ST. LOUIS.

[Correspondence Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ST. LOUIS, October 9, 1871.

The Fair held last week was so immense and so bewildering to any except those who had time to go through it in detail, that I have not attempted to write anything about it. In the few hours I spent on the grounds I failed to see any entries from your enterprising city. I hear since, however, that among the machinery on exhibition, Pittsburgh was well represented, the entries, however, being made by some of our own houses.

Nothing can help this becoming a great annual national exhibition. The entire West and South are identified with it, and if the East has anything to sell or exhibit, there is no better place than an annual fair for the purpose.

St. Louis during Fair week puts on metropolitan array, and is at no other time so given up to gayety and enjoyment. Commerce, more rapidly than statesmanship, is healing up our national wounds, and, save that our orators must point out the scars to verify their triumphant success, nothing indicates that wounds ever existed. If the love of money is the root of all evil, nevertheless it is the root of infinite good. There is no herald of peace and concord like trade, and no promoter of them like the inter-communication trade necessitates.

Enough of the Fair. It is over, and after it comes a new source of excitement, brim full of horror—Chicago on fire. I thought when I read at the head of a column in one of our morning papers "Doomed Chicago!" that the words had a sort of tone of malicious triumph about them. But in the intense emulation that exists between St. Louis and Chicago, bitter sometimes as it is, there is no room for triumph over such a fearful disaster as is now occurring in our sister city.

Such disasters have little to relieve them from blank horror. And yet I thought as I stood in our Merchants' Exchange to-day, and listened to our Mayor, as one after another he read off the subscriptions which poured in from an improvised mass meeting of our citizens, that it is good for humanity that once in a while they shall come.

Trade alone and its rivalries may foster peace and require justice, but the intercourse of man with man would be cold indeed but for great sorrows to sometimes thrill whole communities, and nations, even with the touch of sympathy which makes the whole world kin.

It almost rained money for an hour. Wm. M. McPherson was the first to give a thousand dollars. Mayor Brown who had personally invoked the contributions capped it with another thousand for himself and another for the Missouri Pacific Railroad, of which he is President. E. O. Stannard who was the competing candidate for Mayor, gave a thousand, Jas. B. Eads a thousand, Henry T. Blow twelve hundred, Jas. H. Lucas a thousand. The Republican, Democrat and Westliche Post each gave five hundred, and so on. I reckon in an hour almost a hundred thousand dollars were subscribed, and I have since heard of one bank that I will not name, lest I be wrong, which has given twenty thousand dollars, and of a single individual who has given twenty-one thousand. This afternoon provisions are going free of expense by both Railroads connecting us with Chicago.

I presume pretty much the same thing is going on with you, and the country over. And fearful as is the loss in property, and life, perhaps, that calls forth such efforts, the tremendous response for the beating heart of the nation is the grandest thing the world has to show in all its history. East and west, north and south, we are knit closer together by this disaster, which affects not one city or one section alone, but all of us. There is not a household in the land which had hardly some representative there, and to the infinite distress we all respond, our personal and national sympathy being all blended in one and bringing us all for the future into a closer brotherhood.

Democratic Defaulters.

A letter to the N. Y. Evening Post says: In 1828, when General Jackson was elected, four of the six chief magistrates of the nation had been from Virginia, and the other two, Adams, father and son, from Massachusetts. There had been no defalcations until that of the fourth Auditor, Watkins, under John Q. Adams, the amount of whose peculations was about $4,000. When General Jackson was elected this defalcation was discovered, and Mr. Watkins was imprisoned. The President, under the influence of New York politicians, Mr. Van Buren having been made Secretary of State, introduced the principles of New York Democratic politics, and a partial sweep of the officeholders was made. His friends were selected for places of trust, among them Samuel Swartwout for Collector of this port. After Mr. Van Buren was elected President, Mr. Swartwout was removed, and it was then ascertained that he was a defaulter to the amount of over $1,000,000. Jesse Hoyt was made Collector. He also proved a defaulter. William M. Price was made the United States District Attorney; he, too, failed to account for the sums entrusted to him. Swartwout and Price left the country. They did not attempt to attend a Democratic convention as delegates, although their stealings were small compared with those recently discovered in this city. In all parts of the country, particularly in the Southwestern States, defalcations continued to be discovered, until the people, in 1840, swept the Democratic party from power and the opposition took its place.

Some defalcation have been committed by the members of parties opposed to the Democratic party, but in no case have the defaulters been elected as delegates to their political conventions, as the Democratic thieves were to that recently held in Rochester. In no case have well-known defaulters or public swindlers been allowed to dictate terms to any party in this country except the Democratic party.

The Great Philanthropist.

Burleigh, the New York correspondent of the Boston Journal, thus describes the personal appearance of Stewart, the millionaire, as he saw him at Hempstead, Long Island, his "new city on the plains," the other day: "There is not probably a better preserved man on the continent than A. T. Stewart. A little tinge of gray on the upper part of his sandy whiskers is all the indication of age there is about him. His form is lithe and genteel. He wears fine fitting clothes, and would be taken for a successful merchant or professional man of not over forty years of age. His manners are very quiet, and, in ordinary conversation, his tone is very low. He says but little, and as he stood in the midst of his possessions at Hempstead—eight miles long and four wide—he appeared like an uninterested spectator, with perfect leisure on his hands, instead of a man carrying on a gigantic business. With his two large stores, over which he exercises personal and autocratical control; except the Astors, the heaviest landholder in the city, with innumerable tenants to look after; his huge hotel on Park avenue for women, now in process of erection, with the expenditure of thirty millions on his garden city, would constitute a business quite sufficient for most men. Stewart takes the whole thing as quietly as he would take his breakfast."

Unlucky.

The Cincinnati Commercial says: We are informed, in explanation of the unfortunate detention of the first Cincinnati relief train to Chicago, on the Indianapolis and Cincinnati Railroad, that the first delay was occasioned by a breaking down in a freight train, which proved a tedious and very troublesome disability. This break throwing the train out of time made further delays inevitable. It was a clear case of very bad luck, that no vigilance or energy on the part of the train dispatchers could remedy. In addition to the regular trains fully occupying the road, the rush to the assistance of the Chicago sufferers threw extras on the track at several points, and increased the difficulties of management. It is reasonably suggested that it was better to hold the relief train upon a side track than to run it into the freight train that blocked the road.

FARM, GARDEN AND HOUSEHOLD.

GATHERING WINTER APPLES.

The season has been so warm and dry that what we termed winter fruits, have, many of them, ripened up some two to three weeks earlier than the general rule. The owner of an orchard, should, however, be careful and study the natural habit of the variety ere he proceeds to gather. The Baldwin, Belmont, Twenty ounce Fameuse and many others will possibly be benefitted, or rather assisted in their keeping qualities by being now gathered and stored away in a cool room or dry cellar, but such varieties as the yellow Bellflower, Peck's Pleasant, Northern Spy, Roxbury Russet, Rawle's Genet, etc., we believe will be the better for leaving on the trees two weeks or more yet. All winter apples to keep sound and perfect, should be as carefully hand picked and as they are transferred to the bin or barrel, they should be just carefully handed from basket to bin or barrel. The common practice of saving time by pouring from the basket to the barrel is sure to give more or less of bruise to the fruit and hence induce early decay.

A SUB TROPICAL GARDEN.

Sloane square, a part of London I had never visited, except in a cellar like way, seemed to be as dirty and miserable a part of the city as I had seen. Making a rough guess at the direction of the river, I pushed on till I came to Chelsea Hospital. A friendly passer pointed to the way, and I was soon enjoying the breeze from the swinging span of Chelsea suspension bridge.

Beneath, the muddy waters of Chelsea Beach; clumsey barges, dirty little Thames steamers, pleasure boats, tugs, canal boats, wherries and sailboats crowded the water in every direction. To the right, the gardens of the hospital; to the left, the fields, groves and cricket-grounds of Battersea Park; behind, water-works, gas-works, potteries, factories, shops and houses; at the end of the bridge, a perplexing network of railways and the great sign of the "Home for Lost Dogs;" over all, the usual London smoke.

Queer that one of the best parks in Europe should be planted in the midst of so much toil, smoke, uproar, confusion and dirt. They call it the peoples' park. They well may, for it stands amidst the homes of the laboring poor. Hampton Court is beautiful and Kew magnificent, but sixpence stands between. It is not every man can step over a sixpence with wife and children clinging to his coat.

See what a splendid line of color gleams under those trees! That flash of red is a thousand scarlet geraniums in one mass. See that faint blue line winding in and out along the path. Blue lobelia—nothing more. Even at this distance we can see that something novel in the floral world is to be found there.

Let us go to the park. As we leave the bridge we catch a glimpse of the Crystal Palace, Sydenham. There, too, we may see something effective in gardening. Another day we will inspect that also.

The broad drive next the waterside is filled with carriages, drags, dog-carts and festive turnouts. Fashion and wealth do not disdain to gaze on the poor man's garden. The broad, graveled walk next the park is crowded with nurses, their charges and the inevitable redcoat. The carpenter's and the blacksmith's wives saunter slowly along minding their riotous children, wild with the unwonted luxury of fresh air and green grass. Faded widows in ancient weeds, and sentimental couples munching Bath buns, sit on the seats by the way, and criticise her ladyship as she rols by in her brougham.

To look over the iron railing and see what can be done with mere color is a pleasure as it is novel.

Here we come to an open air restaurant (coffee and tea, fourpence), planted in the midst of an oval garden, fairly blazing with color and oppressive with fragrance. The most intricate arabesques and pronounced mosaics glow in red, white, brown, blue, yellow and black on the green setting of the grass. Certainly one of the most remarkable sights of the kind we have ever seen. Were we not in search of something else we might well spend an hour here in profitable horticultural study. A small sign, "To the Sub-Tropical Garden," points the way.

Reluctantly leaving the garden and the lively and entertaining restaurant, with its cheap buns, muddy coffee and hilarious fun, we cross a well-worn cricket field, pass a small gate, and enter a shady walk, with a stone drinking fountain at the end.

Here we notice a change in the company. The babies, nurses, soldiers, children and sentimental couples as before, and added thereto a sprinkling of a better class. Grave old gentlemen and well-dressed ladies, scientific men in glasses and studious-looking girls (rare in England), all eagerly examining little guide books, reading the labels before the plants, or discussing the relative beauty of the musa ensete, caladium esculentum, or seaforthia elegans.

A short turn in the path, in the bewildering scene spread before us we hardly know what to notice first. Here's a pretty bit.

The gray English sunlight falls on a piece of grass from which are springing strange tropical forms. The sword-like leaves of the zucca, the tall slender canes of the bamboo, and the waving plumes of the pampas grass mingle with the great leaves of the caladium and cannas. Over all spread the gigantic palm-like leaves of the musa and the delicate tracery of the tall seaforthia.

Here's another view. A wide lawn with huge tropical trees apparently growing naturally in the ground. Hardly a familiar plant to be seen. Everything is southern and tropical in its aspect. An air of unreality and excessive luxuriance pervades the place.

The nurses, couples and widows gaze upon the scene very much as they do upon the lions in the Zoological Gardens. The learned young girls and scientific old boys examine the labels carefully and comment sagely on the mysteries of the sub tropical art.

Here is a shady vista filled with great ferns and monster lycopodiums.

"Oh! mother," says a little girl near-by, "don't the fairies live here?"

EXTRACTING GREASE FROM CLOTHING.

Mrs. V. A. T. says in the "Rural New Yorker:" The yolk of egg is the best thing I know of for extracting grease from clothing of any kind, and for cleaning fine woolens; rub it well on the grease spots as you would soap, and then wash it out in soft water, use no soap. It is also excellent for cleaning the head; rub it in well with a piece of flannel, and wash out well with two waters. An ounce of borax in a quart of whisky is also an excellent thing for hair; rub the head thoroughly and comb with fine comb.

TO STEAM A TURKEY.

Rub pepper and salt inside the turkey, after it has been well dressed and washed; then fill the body with oysters; sew it up carefully; lay the turkey in a large dish, and set it in a steamer, placed over boiling water; cover closely, and steam from two hours to two hours and a half—or till by running a fork into the breast you find it is well done. Then take it up strain the gravy which will be found in the dish; have an oyster sauce ready, prepared like stewed oysters, and pour this gravy, thickened with a little butter and flour, into the oyster-sauce, let it just boil up, and whiten with a little boiling cream; pour this sauce over the steamed turkey, and send to the table hot. Of course, while the turkey is steaming, you will have the oysters all ready for the gravy from the dish, and the cream also boiled, that there may be as little delay as possible after the turkey is cooked.

OATMEAL DRINK.

Julia Colman says in the Rural New Yorker that a most acceptable drink is made by putting about two tea-spoonsful of oatmeal into a tumbler of water. It is at once nourishing, unstimulating and satisfying. This it also rapidly coming in use in large establishments where men work much in the heat. It has long been used in the large factories and iron foundries of Europe, and it is coming into use in our country. It is common to find it in the large Government works. In the Brooklyn Navy Yard it is a great favorite, two and a half pounds of oatmeal being put in a pail of moderately cool water It is said to be better than any of the drinks made up with vinegar, molasses, &c., which farmers use in the harvest field. A well-known medical writer says that "from it is obtained power to sustain the exhausted influence of prespiration." Indeed we have seen it tried with great satisfaction, and we commend it to the attention of our hard working friends in the harvest field.

MRS. ROBINSON, a lady of position and of advanced years, living in Cleveland with her daughter, Mrs. Hubble, quietly hung herself on Wednesday. No cause is known for the deed by the surviving friends to whom it was totally unexpected,

The Gentle Internationals.

The Paris Liberte publishes the following letter, which has been addressed to the editor: "Two hundred thousand citizens of Paris, four million citizens in Europe are active members of the Internationale. You are required, under penalty of death, to discontinue your attacks upon the members of the Commune. The Sergents de Ville, the Gardes de Paris and their families are all condemned to death within a year by the Supreme Council of the Association, as are also the officers of the butchering regiments. The capitalists are condemned. We have numbers; we have strength; discipline is being organized. Old society must perish; it will perish. Not a hair shall fall from the heads of any of the members of the Commune, so prepare for the massacre. L'Internationale is mistress of Europe."

THE SUBLIME AND BEAUTIFUL.

No grander or more sublime subject can engage the attention of man than such an one as tends to the amelioration of suffering and pain.

The cure of Consumption, not only in its incipiency, but in its advanced stages, has been cured by DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE. Sometimes the Lung Cure will do this alone; it will always do good. Sometimes the Doctor supplies other medicines with it to meet peculiar indications of the system. In his large medicine establishment are to be found all the fine medicines known, and an experience of nearly half a century has enabled the doctor to know how to use them.

Being a graduate of two schools of medicine, to which he has added over twenty-five years of experience, together with a daily reading and practice in chronic diseases, with special attention to those of the lungs, it would be a matter of wonder if he did not know the treatment of such cases to a more than ordinary extent. His pamphlet on chronic lung diseases, sent free whenever it is ordered, discourses more fully upon the subject than could be allowed in any newspaper article. Where your druggist does not keep Dr. Keyser's Lung Cure, 4 bottles will be sent by express for $5. Single bottles $1.50 at the Doctor's Medical Office, 167 Liberty street. Office hours from 10 A. M. until 1 P. M., and from 3 until 6 P. M., and Saturday's at night until 9.

THE WARNING HAS BEEN HEEDED.

Since the exposure of the attempts made by certain unscrupulous local dealers, to palm off their coarse astringents, made from cheap and impure materials, in the place of the great national tonic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, public opinion has set strongly against these empirics and their preparations. Their occupation is gone, or soon will be. When the light is let into deception it soon wilts down. Persons who trifle with their own health, by using unknown preparations, with no guarantee to sustain them when an established specific, proven by twenty years experience to be exactly what it is claimed to be, is within their reach, are sure to repent their temerity. Many have done so in this instance, but it is hoped that the truth plainly spoken has arrested this evil. In the meantime the demand for the leading protective and restorative medicine of America was never so great as it has been this season. From the fever and ague districts of the West, South-west, and South, it is literally overwhelming, and it may be said of the advices from all parts of the country of the cures it is effecting in dyspepsia, bilious complaints, and chronic constipation, that "their name is legion." Everywhere the sick and feeble seem to have realized the importance of "holoing fast that which is good," and of avoiding what is spurious and dangerous.

Finance and Trade.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, October 14, 1871.

At the time of the great calamity at Chicago there were seventeen elevators afloat, with a storage capacity for 11,580,000 bushels of grain. The elevators burned were the Hiram Wheeler, 500,000 bushels capacity; the Munger and Armour, 600,000 bushels; the National, with 250,000 bushels; the Central A, 700,000 bushels; the Union, 700,000 bushels, and one other, but name not given. The elevators burned take away from the storage capacity about 3,500,000 bushels capacity. Those that were burned had about 1,600,000 bushels of grain of all kinds, the larger proportion of corn.

—The St. Louis Republican, in referring to the Chicago conflagration and its probable effect on trade, says:

"Naturally, the first effect has been to depress stocks and bonds at the East by forcing insurance companies to realize upon their assets, and to give a feverish tone to the breadstuffs and provision markets, and has led to some advances in values that may be maintained permanently, and to others which can at best be but temporary. So far as can be gathered from the dispatches received, seven only of the seventeen elevators have been destroyed, none of the packing houses have been injured and the majority of the lumber yards have escaped destruction. To this extent then the loss has been less than was apprehended, and the fear that for a time there would be an absolute cessation in the supplies to be sent forward to consuming or exporting points from the lake city, seem to be groundless, nor is the destruction of the two or three million bushels of grain in the elevators that were consumed likely to seriously effect market values. The absolute withdrawal of that amount of grain from the possible supply will be more than counterbalanced by the closeness of the money market and the disarrangement of transportation, and while for the immediate present there may be a larger demand upon other western points for flour, it is doubtful if even a temporary advance can be sustained. It is rather probable that the continued dullness in European markets, the fact that the supplies in England and amount afloat exceeds that in sight, at a corresponding period of last year, must serve to depress values. The position as to provisions is rather the reverse of this. In spite of the fact that there has been comparatively no loss at Chicago, prices have strengthened, showing that stocks are low everywhere, and being insufficient to fill out the trade until the meats of the incoming season can be thoroughly cured, that the market cannot be depressed, but on the contrary is liable to strong upward fluctuations."

NEW YORK, October 14, 1871.

Gold steady at $1.14⅛@1.14¼. In the morning loans were made flat, but soon from seven per cent. per annum to 1-16 per day was changed for carrying. Clearances about $71,000,000. Exports to-day about $290,000; for the week $515 308. Governments strong and higher. The market closed firm, when the highest prices of the day were current. The stock market opened steady on a diminished volume of business. The dealings were well distributed, and without special feature. Towards the close the market was strong and buoyant, and there was a sharp advance in prices. Western Union led the upward movement, advancing from 55⅞ to 59. Reading, Lake Shore and North Western were next in point of interest. Dealings in Western Union were very large, and there was more activity in the general market.

The Bank Statement is unfavorable. The banks are a million and a quarter below the legal limit. The following are the changes:

Loans, decrease	$4,645,200
Specie, decrease	938,400
Circulation, increase	73,900
Deposits, decrease	7,401,000
Legal Tenders, decrease	3,734,200

PITTSBURGH MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, October 14, 1871.

ASHES—Common Soda ash, 4 cts; refined do, 4¾@4⅞; Pearls, 9⅛; Pots, 7½; Nitrate Soda, 4¾@4⅞.

APPLES—In good supply, the receipts for some days past having been unusually large, and while the market is a shade easier, and the demand mainly for small lots, prices remain unchanged. $2.50@3 per bbl for fair to good, and $3.50 for choice—the latter grade in car load lots, may be quoted at $2.75@2.85.

BUTTER—Continues to come in freely and with no improvement in the demand and stocks accumulating, the market is dull and heavy and prices tending downward; prime roll, cannot fairly be quoted above 18 cts, though we hear of an occasional small sale at 20 cts.

BROOM CORN—Is firm and may be quoted at 6@8 cts, as to quality.

BEANS—None in market; prime navy, at $2.00@2.25 per bushel.

BEESWAX—Quoted at 30@33c.

CORN MEAL—Is very quiet and the demand is mainly of a retail character; may be quoted in small lots at 85@90 cts per bushel.

CEMENT—Louisville, $2.50@3.00 per bbl. Rosendale, $4.00@4.50; Calcined Plaster, $4.25@4.50.

CIDER—The market is quiet and unchanged at $4@8 per bbl.

CANNED FRUITS—Quiet and unchanged.

CARBON OIL—Is firm but without quotable change; standard brands, 23@23½ in car load lots—usual advance in a small way.

CRANBERRIES—Sales of prime Jersey at $11@12 per bbl.

CHEESE—Is quiet and unchanged; prime New York Goshen, 15½@16; prime Ohio Goshen, 15@15½; Factory, 14@14½; Dairy, 13@13½.

CHESTNUTS—The receipts continue large, and with a limited demand the market is dull and prices lower; we now quote at $3.25@3.50 per bushel—though some dealers are still asking $4.

DRIED FRUIT—There is considerable inquiry for Peaches (prime halves) and we are reported sales at 9½@10 cts. Quarters quoted at 7@7½; mixed 8@8½. Nothing doing in apples—our market as yet is bare.

EGGS—We can report a steady demand, and with limited receipts and a reduced supply, the market is firm but unchanged; 28@30—most of the sales at the inside quotation.

FLOUR—Is firm at the recent advance but the market is not excited; the general feeling is that the top has been touched, and that a reaction soon is not improbable. We continue to quote at $7.00@7.25 for good springs; $7.75@8 for choice Minnesota baker's flour, and $7.25@7.50 for good to choice red winter wheat. New York market dull on Friday.

GRAIN—The market for Wheat is reported easier; the mills are reported as being pretty well stocked, having bought pretty largely in the west within the past week, and, in consequence, the millers are bearish—they want to put prices down here, in order to reduce the cost on what they have bought to arrive; red may now be quoted at $1,43@1.45, and white at $1,48@1.50. Oats, firm at the recent advance; 45@46 for mixed, and 47@48 for white; the receipts have been comparatively light for some time past, and holders are indifferent about selling at the advance. Corn is reported steady but unchanged; shelled, on spot, 69, 70 in bulk and 71@72, sacked. The demand for ear Corn is light, and mainly for small lots. Western Rye, from all that we can learn, cannot be fairly quoted above 90. The receipts during the past week have been smaller than for several weeks preceding. There is an improved demand for spot Barley, but no advance in prices; 80@85 for fair to prime spring and 85@90 for fall.

GROCERIES—The grocery market is devoid of anything particularly new or important. Coffees continue as strong as ever and advices from New York report a good trade, and that extreme prices are being realized. Sugars—the reports from New York indicate a little stronger feeling, though there is no improvement in prices—refined Sugars reported firmer. Molasses continue dull, and there is not much prospect of any immediate improvement. Rice is firmer, and the finer grades of Syrups are steady. Following are the ruling quotations.

SUGARS—Refined—Standard Hards, 13¾; A. 13. B, 12⅝; Ex. C, 12⅜; C. Yellow, 12⅛, Porto Rico Sugars—Choice, 11⅛; Prime, 11; Good, 10⅛. Cuba Sugars, 10⅜@11. Demarara, 12⅜@12⅞. Sugar House Sugars—Knight's Extra C. Yellow, 11⅜; C. C. 11⅜; other grades, 9@11. New Orleans Sugars—None in market.

WILLOWS—Quoted firm at 10 cts.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

The petroleum market has been unusually quiet during the past week, and, in a general way, there are no new features worthy of special notice. About the only thing we have had to record for some time past has been receipts and shipments; the exports of refined have been increasing of late, and it is stated that nearly all of the refineries are again in full blast, and this has a tendency to keep up the price of crude and depress refined—it is a good thing for producers and exporters, but hard on refiners, yet there seems to be no help for it. Crude has been remarkably steady for several weeks past; it has not varied in price over ten cents per barrel within that time; while refined has fluctuated from 50 to 75 cts per bbl. When there is an advance in the latter the former generally follows suit, but when refined drops, crude refuses to respond. The increased shipments of refined within the past week is good evidence that there is less difficulty in getting cars, and the fact may be attributed in part, at least, to the falling off in the receipts of live stock.

Receipts crude this week, 24,580; last week, 31,732; January 1st to date, 917.850; same time last year, 858.740. Exports refined this week, 20,687; last week, 17,167; January 1st to date, 570,957; same time last year, 602,013.

CRUDE.

There were no sales of crude reported, in the absence of which quotations may be given nominally at $4.67@4.70, at Parker. Pittsburgh deliveries entirely played out.

REFINED.

Refined, quiet and unchanged. October, 24; November and December, 24@24¼.

OIL BARRELS.

Firm and higher; city make now held at $1.80—country, $1.70.

PITTSBURGH CATTLE MARKET.

RECEIPTS STOCK.

The receipts of stock at the Central Yards for the week ending to-day, were as follows:

	This week.	Last week.
Cattle	332 cars.	430 cars.
Hogs	180 "	290 "
Sheep	85 "	85 "
Horses	12 "	17 "
Mules	13 "	6 "
Total	622 "	878 "

CATTLE.

The receipts, as will be seen, were again comparatively light, 332 cars against 430 for the week ending October 7th; 460 for the week ending September 30th, and 530 the week preceding that again. However, notwithstanding the material falling off in the receipts, the supply was fully up to the demand; the number of buyers in attendance this week was comparatively small, and those who were here were "bearish," and, as the eastern markets have been unusually hard for some months past, and eastern buyers have fared badly, they are now exercising more than ordinary caution, and the most of them have resolved to incur as little risk as possible; this being the case, the demand has fallen off fully as much as the receipts, and, in consequence, the market, as yet, gives but little evidence of improvement, and there was no chance to spring prices. Some dealers were inclined to believe to-day that trade will be better next week, in anticipation of another light run, and, should the receipts be as small as they were this week, it is likely that their expectations will be realized; however, no material or permanent advance in prices is expected, as there are too many cattle for this, and those who are holding back with this in view, will, in all probability, be disappointed.

As compared with last week, there has been but little change in prices, but, as already noted, there is a better feeling, and the market closes firmer. Prime to extra steers may be quoted at 5@5¾, and fair to good at 4@4¾. Following is a detailed report of most of the leading sales on Thursday, Friday and to-day:

SHEEP.

The supply of sheep was about the same as last week, and while the market has been a little slow, there is no change to make in prices. The offerings, as a general thing were fair in regard to quality, though, as is nearly always the case, the great bulk were of the common and medium grades. Prime 90@95 lb close wool sheep sold at 5@5¾; extra 100 to 110 lb. averages, may be quoted at 5½@5¾—one drove brought 6¾.

Wm. Myers reports having bought about 1,000 head averaging in weight about 83@85 lbs, at an average price of 4.40.

HOGS.

The market closes considerably firmer, under the influence of more favorable advices from New York and a material falling off in the arrivals; as will be seen the receipts are reported at 180 cars against 390 cars last week, a decrease of 210 cars. On Thursday and Friday, the York buyers pitched in and bought pretty freely and prices were run up from 4.50 to 4.80@4.90, and to-day there were but very few in the pens unsold. Philadelphia hogs are also higher, but it was the operations of the York men that put the market up; the latter grade of hogs may be quoted at 5.00@5.12½.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

Five of "Street's Palace Stock Cars" arrived here this week from Chicago, loaded with cattle—15 head to the car. When taken out of the cars the cattle are said to have been as fresh as if they had just been brought out of a stable; no bruises, and in every way in excellent condition. We understand that it is the intention of this company to make their headquarters here. Seven of these cars will be loaded at Indianapolis, next week, for New York.

Our live stock friends will be glad to learn that the great Union Stock Yards, at Chicago, sustained no damage whatever from the fire. Furthermore, it is thought that nearly, if not all, of the packing houses are safe.

Now that the receipts of stock are falling off, we hear less complaint in regard to scarcity of cars.

RIVER NEWS.

The weather continues cloudy and unsettled, with occasional showers of rain, and the prospects for water, although not all that could be desired, are nevertheless improving.

The stage of water last evening was three feet—a rise of some 22 inches within the past 48 hours. The rise is mainly out of the Monongahela.

The Monongahela river rose 18 inches at Greensboro, on Friday, and the Allegheny was rising slowly at Parkers, yesterday, with 14 inches in the channel at that point. As we noted the other day, it will require an unusually large quantity of rain to place our rivers in good navigable condition, for the reason that they have not been so low for many years.

James Hervey, mate of the towboat Fred Wilson, died on board that boat, on Friday night, of hemorrhage of the bowels. He was sick but a short time. Deceased resided at Mansfield, Pa., and leaves a family.

—Capt. Richard T. English, late river and commercial editor of the Memphis Appeal, died at that place on Friday last. He had been an invalid for some time, and his death was not unexpected.

—Capt. John Woodburn writes to Mr. Robert Semple, from Washington, that the committee may not possibly get away this week, as there are at least fifty patent right men in Washington, and it will be necessary for the committee to secure their "rulings." They are now waiting on the Attorney-General for a decision with regard to boats, the papers of which have not yet expired. Louisville, St. Louis, Detroit, Pittsburgh, and New York are represented, besides ourselves.—Cincinnati Gazette.

—On the last down trip of the Bee, Capt Goll was out sounding at Turkey Island, and about a dozen of country people came down to the brink of the river to witness the proceedings. Capt. Goll having some St. Louis papers, fixed one with a stick and stone and threw it on shore, saying that he presumed they would like to read the news. One and another of them answered no, they didn't want the news, and, although the paper fell close to them, no one touched it, and shortly thereafter the train of delightfully ignorant Illinois "peasants" departed as silently as they had approached.

—The Cincinnati Commercial says: Ingersoll, the party from New York who wrote to the Local Inspectors, offering them a premium on the sales of his life-preservers, in their respective districts, provided they would adopt his, above all others, is in Washington, endeavoring to have the Board of Supervisors adopt them. As Secretary Boutwell has one of the letters in his possession, and as that gentleman has expressed it as his intention to squash all such monopolies, we have no very great fear that he will succeed.

—A late Memphis paper says: Owing to a coal panic at Louisville, prices advanced there last week to 32 cents per bushel. We have a stock of 1,250,000 bushel at this point and at the mouth of the White river, a supply amply sufficient to last until March next. The market price is not likely to advance beyond a reasonable figure, because there is no apprehension of scarcity. At present the rates are to steamers 70 cents per box for Pittsburgh, and 6 cents for Mt. Carbon. To city trade, screened and delivered, the rate is 85 cents per bbl for Mt. Carbon and $1 for Pittsburgh.

—The Telegraph brings us the sorrowful news of the loss of the steamer Twelfth Era in a storm; on last Tuesday, in Galveston Bay. She is a total wreck, but it is a consolation to know that there were but few lives lost. Captain Gillen is in a streak of bad luck, for it is but a short time since he lost two barges in trying to get them towed from New Orleans to Galveston. We are afraid the loss of his steamer will also interfere with his shelling contract at that city, and sincerely sympathize with him.

—Thos. Kennedy, a brother-in-law of the late Paymaster, C. W. Dunn, United States Navy, committed suicide, a few days since, nine miles from Cairo. He had been engaged as traveling agent for Cassidy & Co., manufacturers of photographic materials, in Cleveland. The deceased was a son of F. A. Kennedy, Carlisle, Pennsylvania, and ended his life by taking strychnine.

—Capt. Shunk writes from Washington as follows: We are getting along quite well in our business, and I think we will get quite a liberal construction of the law, as the Secretary as well as the Supervising Inspectors appear to be anxious to do all they can. We will probably be home during the early part of next week.

—Vicksburg charges boats $10 each way yet for the privilege of landing, and yet no one will remember, we believe, of a dollar of repairs ever being made upon the Vicksburg levee. In this time of progress and improvement boatmen will not feel contented until the Vicksburg Council abolishes the burden referred to.

—Captain H. G. Carson, of the Oceans, obtained one dollar and forty cents per barrel on flour, and other freights in like proportion, from St. Louis to the bends on his last trip to New Orleans.

—James Greenough, formerly second clerk of the New Orleans and Arkansas river packet, Arkansas has arrived at St. Louis from Pittsburgh and goes on the Carrie V. Kountz, with Mr. Murdoch.

—Capt. R. S. Yerkes has purchased the R. C. Gray from the Louisville & Arkansas River Packet Company for $9,000, and proposes to run her from Cincinnati to Arkansas river.

—Stanley Ryland, formerly clerk on the river, has taken charge of the river column of the St. Louis Journal of Commerce, temporarily.

—Captain Maratta painted the chimneys of the Tobe Hurt a fiery red previous to her departure from Evansville to Texas.

—The Exchange has entered the U. S. Mail Line between Cincinnati and Louisville.

—Freight from Ironton to Cincinnati is 50 cents per cwt., and passage $5.

HOME NEWS.

Wrist Broken.—About three o'clock yesterday afternoon Dr. Donnelly was called to attend a man named Powers, a puddler in Brownstown, who had broken his wrist by a fall.

Pickpocket.—Officer Charles Stoer arrested a man on Penn street yesterday, who was drunk and attempted to go through the pockets of a German. He gave his name as Samuel Glass.

The Office of Joseph Maclean, Room No. 9, 96½ Fourth avenue, is a pleasant resort for the literary man. You can find books in every department of literature, and many rare works. Send for a catalogue. tf

By Reference to the card of Mr. R. W. Roberts on our first page it will be seen he has severed his connection with the old firm, and opened up at No. 153 Wood street. Mr. R. is an experienced man in his business, understanding all the different branches thoroughly, and worthy the public patronage. Those wanting an upholster could employ no better.

Accident at Etna.—James Smith, nine years of age, was playing on the bank of Pine creek, Etna borough, on Saturday afternoon, when he was struck on the forehead by a stone, rolled down the hill by a boy named Strain for his own amusement. The wound inflicted was quite severe, but purely accidental. The little fellow was carried home and Dr. McQuade dressed his injuries.

We wish to call the attention of parties wanting to purchase ground for private residences outside of the dirt and smoke, to the tract of land offered by Mr. George B. Hill. This tract is on the Pan-Handle road near the city, and it is said is in a beautiful location. There are thirty (30) acres of it and could be laid out in lots, or in five acre tracts to a good advantage. Call on Mr. Hill, corner of Wood and Third avenue, and get particulars. There is money in it.

Supposed Incendiarism.—Yesterday morning, at an early hour, a small stable in an alley near Washington street and Seventh avenue, was discovered to be on fire. The flames had made but little progress, and the prompt application of a few buckets of water extinguished them. No alarm was given, and the Fire Department was not in attendance. There is little doubt that the fire was the work of an incendiary.

The Escaped Nun.—Miss Edith O'Gorman will deliver her fourth and last lecture at Library Hall next Thursday evening. Subject: "The Romish Mass and Ceremonials Explained." This is a new lecture, in which the "Escaped Nun" will relate of her conversion to Protestantism, and reply to certain letters recently published in the Post. On Wednesday evening Miss O'Gorman will lecture in East Liberty on the subject: "Life in a Convent." See advertisement in amusement column.

The Orphan's Mite.—The orphan children, inmates of the Episcopal Church Home, inmates because of their orphanage and penury, to whom their teacher, Mrs. Lend, read daily from the GAZETTE the details of the Chicago calamity by which their hearts were touched and their all of worldly possession, amounting to just four dollars, freely surrendered, an offering to God relatively larger than the offering of any bank or individual in the city, may God return it to them a thousand fold.

On Saturday we were passing along Sixth (late St. Clair) street, when we were irresistably attracted to the windows of No. 10, in which Mr. James Gallagher had displayed a few beautiful specimens of his fine stock of imported cloths of the best qualities and newest styles. We consider it to be the duty of every man, who has the means, to dress well, and more especially so when it is so easy and pleasant a thing to do. All that one has to do is to go to number 10, revel for a while in the luxury of indecision among the treasures of the loom which are there garnered, choose finally something to suit you, and then hand it over to Mr. Muhlanbring, who will take your measure and cut out your clothes—facts which insure satisfaction, style and a graceful fit.

Distressing Accident.

A little boy named John Donnovan, thirteen years of age, the son of a widow woman residing on Pike street, was returning from his work at Hamilton's glass works, on Saturday, and wanting to ride home, attempted to get on a moving train on the Allegheny Valley Railroad, near Eighteenth street. He slipped and fell, however, his left leg upon the track, and before the train could be stopped, several cars had passed over it, almost severing it from the body. He was picked up and carried into a house near by, where Dr. J. H. Heiber, assisted by Dr. Hezlep, surgeon of the railroad, dressed his wounds, and he is now doing well. A physician near by who was called upon, refused to give surgical aid without a guarantee that he would be paid for the same.

An old offender Captured.

Our readers will remember the case which occurred some weeks since of a young man who attempted to pass a $10 counterfeit note on Mr. Abraham Van Uller, a second hand merchant on Penn street. Upon the discovery of the character of the note, by Mr. V. the young man took to his heels and being followed by Mr. Van Uller, he threw and struck him with a stone. Last evening a young man giving his name as Vann Kennedy, was arrested by officer John McClurey, on Penn street for fast driving, and some time after he was locked-up, a brother of Mr. Van Uller, called at the station house and identified him as the "shover of the queer" who had attempted to victimize his brother. As the accused has been charged with assault and battery at Alderman Koenig's office, and Commissioner Gamble's warrent for his arrest for pasing spurious money is in the hand of officer Gillespie, the chances are that Kennedy will remain in durance for at least several days.

November Magazines.

SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY comes to us, the first number of the third half-yearly volume, enlarged and more excellent than ever. We speak but in moderation when we say we do not know its superior, in Europe or America, among the magazines. It is an always delightful companion. The especial attractions of the November number are the first chapters of a novel by Mrs. Oliphant, a poem by Joaquin Miller and a fine portrait of the lamented Charles Scribner.

THE GALAXY, which divides the palm of priority with Scribner's this month, is less heavy and more like its delightful self than it has been for the last few numbers. It has a portrait of Herbert Spencer, which is very miserable, but then people do not buy the Galaxy for the portraits. General Imboden contributes some reminiscences of Lee and Jackson; Gideon Wells has an account of Farragut at New Orleans; Howard Glyndon has one of those poems which are gradually making him famous, and there are numerous other good things worth reading.

Rev. Gray at Christ Church.

Yesterday morning Rev. John A. Gray, former pastor at Christ Church, preached before his old congregation. The church edifice was crowded to its utmost seating capacity, and chairs were used in the aisles. The reverend gentleman took for his text, Acts 17, part of the 27th verse. "If happily they might feel after him and find him." The sermon was a most able and interesting one, and was listened to throughout with the greatest attention by the immense audience. The speaker made reference to his late trouble by beseeching all and every one in time of trial and difficulty to have faith in God and lean upon Him. After closing, he made a few remarks to his late congregation and said that on this, perhaps the last occasion on which he would address them, his heart was almost too full for utterance. He had had pleasant intercourse with them, had visited them and had participated with them in occasions of sorrow and of gladness. In his western home he often thought of them and imagined he could see the different families enter their accustomed pews in Christ Church. He was glad to hear of the increased prosperity of the congregation and hoped that God would shower blessings upon all.

Safe Deposit Company.

From a notice published in another column this morning it will be seen that the vaults, and the building of this Company, in the opinion of Mr. J. W. Kerr, the well-known architect, are perfectly safe from fire. All of the windows and doors except those on Fourth avenue are covered with heavy iron shutters, so that it would be next to impossible for fire to communicate from the surrounding buildings. The house is heated with steam, no fire being used about it except in the boiler, which is thoroughly encased in a perfectly fire-proof vault in the cellar. Even if a fire could possibly break out in the building from any cause, the large iron safe is completely fire-proof. As it was built expressly with this intention, persons having bonds, money, plate jewelry or valuable papers of any description, would certainly do well to deposit them for safe keeping with this company. The rate charged for this is so trifling, that we very much wonder that there is any unoccupied room in the company's vault. The officers of the company are so well known and their integrity so well established that it is unnecessary for us to say one word on that subject. We are free to advise our readers to deposit their valuables with this company, where they would be safe even though our city should be visited with a similar calamity to that which has laid Chicago in ashes.

Baltimore Banquet.

The tickets for the Baltimore banquet have been issued, and are the most gorgeously illuminated article of the kind we have ever seen. The banquet will be given in the Maryland Institute on Thursday evening of this week, and it is said will be served up in a style worthy of the beautiful Monumental City. We are not much in favor of expensive banquets ourselves, and would rather dispense with them on all occasions, but we have no right, or rather it would be too delicate a matter for us, to dictate to our friends how they should set their table, or whether they should set it at all. It is true there is much suffering in Chicago which calls for material aid, but we think it would scarcely be becoming in us to intimate to our Baltimore friends that they had better hand over the cost of the banquet to the fund for the relief of the sufferers of the Garden City. As well might we say to our friends who intend giving oyster suppers during the winter, "Better hand the cost of your oyster suppers to the Chicago Relief Fund." The visit to Baltimore, as we understand it, is of a business character, at least it should be made such. It should not be looked upon as a mere frolic. The idea is to bring the business men of Baltimore and Pittsburgh into closer relationship, and we hope the visit of to-morrow, if it should be made, will have this effect.

The following correspondence between Baltimore and Pittsburgh took place Saturday evening:

PITTSBURGH, October 14.

MAYOR BANKS, Baltimore: At a meeting of Councils held this afternoon the Mayor was requested to telegraph to the Committee of Reception of your city to know whether it would be convenient to postpone our proposed visit, if your arrangements are not too far advanced.

PITTSBURGH COUNCILS.

Special Meeting on Saturday—One Hundred Thousand Dollars to Chicago—The Proposed Visit to Baltimore—Efforts to Postpone the Same, etc., etc.

Pittsburgh Councils met Saturday, October 14, on special call, at the request of the Finance Committee, to take action on the draft of a proposed act of Assembly to authorize the city of Pittsburgh to provide for reimbursement of money advanced in aid of the sufferers of Chicago by reason of the recent fire.

SELECT COUNCIL.

A. H. GROSS.....President
E. S. MORROW.....Clerk

The Select branch was called to order at 2:10 P. M., with the following members present:

Messrs. Ahlborn, Aiken, Donnelly, Edwards, Friday, Gallaher, Glenn, Hoeb, Jeremy, E. P. Jones, Isaac Jones, Kebew, Kirk, Lang, Laufman, Asdale, Littell, Lloyd, McCune, Morrow, Murdoch, Murray, Neely, Phillips, Rafferty, Schmidt, Scully, Seely, Shipton, Wainwright, Riddell, and President Gross.

The minutes of the previous meeting were approved.

AID TO CHICAGO.

Mr. PHILLIPS offered a copy of a proposed act of Assembly, entitled "An act to authorize the city of Pittsburgh to provide for the reimbursement of money advanced in aid of the sufferers by the burning of the city of Chicago," authorizing the city to increase its indebtedness for that purpose.

The paper was accompanied by the following:

Resolved, That the foregoing act of Assembly be approved, and that the clerks of Councils be directed to take charge of the same, and as soon as the Legislature meets, forward the same and request that it be enacted into a law.

Mr. PHILLIPS—I move that the resolution be read three times and passed.

Mr. GALLAHER thought "$100,000" should be stricken out, and "$50,000" inserted.

Mr. PHILLIPS—We have already, at the last meeting, pledged the city for $100,000, and I think it is not too much for the city of Pittsburgh to give. Councils should not hesitate about the passage of the resolution.

Mr. RAFFERTY thought it would be better to give Chicago $75,000, and devote the remaining $25,000 to the relief of the sufferers in Minnesota, who had less means and ability to stand losses than the people of Chicago.

Mr. RIDDELL—What is the question before Council? I have not heard anything read besides the proposed act of Assembly.

The PRESIDENT—The question is, Shall the action of Councils at their last meeting be legalized?

Mr. RIDDELL—We cannot pass an act of Assembly here. That paper should be accompanied by a resolution.

Mr. PHILLIPS—There is a resolution. It was submitted with the other paper. I call for the reading of the resolution.

The resolution was then read.

Mr. PHILLIPS—That is now the business before Council.

Mr. GALLAHER—We now wish to fix the amount which we intend to give, and I move for a reconsideration of the action of Council on the matter at the previous meeting.

Mr. ISAAC JONES moved to lay the motion to reconsider on the table, which motion prevailed.

Mr. PHILLIPS—I now ask for the third reading and final passage of the resolution.

At this moment the clerk was called to the Common Council chamber, and during his absence there was a brief discussion of Mr. Phillips' resolution. After the clerk returned,

Mr. PHILLIPS said—I have a resolution here which not only embodies the action of Councils, at their last meeting, but legalizes that action.

Mr. E. P. JONES—If Col. Phillips has another resolution, why did he not offer it with the first, and not complicate the whole matter in this way?

The PRESIDENT here read the first resolution on the subject passed by C. C. at the last meeting, which S. C. had concurred in. As to the second resolution passed by that body, this branch had stricken it out. Now, he said, C. C. should recede and concur.

Mr. PHILLIPS—I again ask the third reading and final passage of the resolution accompanying the proposed act of Assembly.

Mr. E. P. JONES—I move, as an amendment to that resolution, that a committee of five, two from Select and three from Common Councils, be appointed to go to Harrisburg for the purpose of obtaining the desired legislation.

Several voices—"Oh, there is no use of such a committee."

Mr. JONES—Well, I will withdraw the amendment.

Mr. PHILLIPS—As the gentleman is one of those who will become responsible for this money, he has a right to make any amendment he pleases. [Laughter.]

The question came up upon the passage of the resolution.

Mr. KIRK—I call for the ayes and nays.

The PRESIDENT—I don't think there is any reason to fear that there will be a vote against the measure. If the vote is not unanimous, however, we will give the gentleman a chance.

A vote was then taken, all the members voting "aye" except Mr. Phillips, who voted "no." [Sensation in the lobby.]

Mr. PHILLIPS—I do this for the purpose of having the ayes and nays called.

The clerk then called the roll with the following result:

Ayes—Messrs. Ahlborn, Aiken, Donnelly, Edwards, Friday, Gallaher, Glenn, Hoeb, Jeremy, E. P. Jones, Isaac Jones, Kenew, Kirk, Lang, Laufman, Asdale, Littell, Lloyd, McClure, Morrow, Murdoch, Murray, Neely, Phillips, Rafferty, Schmidt, Scully, Seely, Shipton, Wainwright, Riddell, Gross, President.

So the resolution was finally passed.

Mr. PHILLIPS then presented the second resolution, which follows, and asked the passage of the same:

WHEREAS, It appears that the Councils of the city of Pittsburgh have no power to appropriate money to the relief of sufferers by the late fire in Chicago.

Resolved, That the members of the Finance Committee be requested to raise upon individual obligations the sum of one hundred thousand dollars and appropriate the same to the relief of the sufferers by the fire in Chicago, the obligations so given to be carried until authority be obtained from the Legislature for payment of the same by the city.

The resolution passed finally.

THE BALTIMORE VISIT.

Mr. RIDDELL offered the following:

WHEREAS, The authorities of the city of Baltimore recently extended to our people an invitation to accept of their public hospitalities upon the 18th inst.; and

WHEREAS, The great calamity which has so unexpectedly overwhelmed our sister city of Chicago, has saddened every heart and shrouded in grief our whole country. Therefore, be it

Resolved, By the Select and Common Councils of the city of Pittsburgh, that in view of the untoward circumstances, we should suggest to our Baltimore friends the propriety of postponing our contemplated visit to a more propitious hour, when we shall be happy to meet them at the festive board, and one and all avail ourselves of their good cheer, and

"Tak' a cup o' kindness yet,
For Auld Lang Syne."

Resolved, That the Chairman of Councils be and they are hereby instructed to communicate the foregoing to the Mayor and Councils of Baltimore, without delay.

Mr. PHILLIPS moved a third reading and final passage of the resolutions.

Mr. KIRK objected to the language of the resolution, characterizing the allusions to the "flowing bowl" and "Auld Lang Syne" as highly improper. This was to be a visit with especial regard to our manufacturing interests. We did not expect to make it a drunken brawl. He thought, moreover, that Pittsburgh should not now decline Baltimore's invitation. They had made extensive preparations, and it would not only be a disappointment to them, but indelicate on our part to decline at this late day. The banquet was ready, and we should go on and partake of it.

Mr. ISAAC JONES thought it would be well enough to ask Baltimore to postpone the affair for the present.

Mr. PHILLIPS thought that was the object of the gentleman who drew up the resolutions. The visit should be postponed because there were many who could not go at this time. If the affair goes on at the appointed time Pittsburgh could not send a good representation.

Mr. RIDDELL said he desired to reply briefly to the criticisms of the gentleman (Mr. Kirk) upon the language of the resolutions. If the gentleman wished to characterize a quotation from the poet Burns as vulgar and improper, he was at liberty to enjoy his opinion. But, fortunately, there were not many people who would agree with the gentleman. For his (Mr. Riddell's) part he could see nothing vulgar or improper in the resolutions.

Mr. RAFFERTY offered, as a substitute, "that we deem it inexpedient at this time to accept the invitation, and while fully appreciating the liberal spirit of that city, we respectfully ask that the proposed banquet be postponed for the present; and that the Presidents of these Councils be instructed to communicate this action to the Mayor of Baltimore at once by telegraph."

Mr. PHILLIPS said that another reason for postponing the visit for the present was that President Hughart was lying sick and could not participate.

Mr. SCULLY said the merchants of Baltimore were opposed to the proposed visit at the present time. From information he had received from that quarter, he knew the merchants were in favor of a postponement.

Mr. E. P. JONES thought that a postponement would be well enough in the absence of the fact that Baltimore had about completed extensive preparations for the reception of their visitors. The city had doubtless incurred heavy expenses, and a postponement would result in a loss to that city.

Mr. MORROW moved as an amendment, that the invitation be declined altogether.

Mr. PHILLIPS though this would be an insult to the city of Baltimore.

Mr. AIKEN moved to lay the amendment on the table.

The President—That will never do, as that would carry with it the whole matter.

Mr. AIKEN insisted upon his motion, when the question was put upon the same, and the motion was lost.

Mr. MORROW's amendment was lost.

The question then was upon Mr. Rafferty's substitute, which was also lost.

The question then recurred upon the original resolutions, and they were adopted.

A motion to adjourn was made.

The President—If we adjourn, and Common Council don't concur with us in this Baltimore business, where are we? The Clerk will please notify Common Council that we are ready to adjourn.

GAS COMMITTEE.

Mr. SHIPTON asked leave to present the report of the Gas Committee, which was granted. The report recommended the erection of gas lamps at the following points: One at the corner of twenty-third street and Mulberry alley; one at the corner of Duquesne way and Cecil alley. The Committee also report adversely to the erection of a lamp on Forty-fourth street, between North and Centre streets.

The report was received and the recommendations adopted.

Mr. SHIPTON also presented the ordinance authorizing contracts for a supply of gas posts in the East End, which had been referred back to the Committee. Laid over.

The action of Common Council on the Baltimore resolutions was then made known, the President reading the resolution of that body upon the subject.

Mr. KIRK moved to concur, and the motion prevailed.

Adjourned.

COMMON COUNCIL.

C. W. BATCHELOR.....President pro tem.
H. McMASTER.....Clerk.

This branch was called to order at two o'clock, when in the absence of President Oliver, on motion of Mr. Cohen, Mr. C. W. Batchelor, of the 20th ward, was called to the chair.

[President Oliver, was absent at Chicago, attending to some arrangements in reference to the Pittsburgh supplies sent for the relief of the sufferers.]

Clerk McMASTER called the roll when the following members answered:

THE LEGAL QUESTION.

The President asked for the reading of the call upon which the meeting had been called.

The Clerk explained that he never had seen it.

President BATCHELOR—Then we can't go on legally. The rules require that the call for a special meeting shall be in writing, stating the object for which it was called and then be recorded in the minutes with the names of signers. We can't go on without this "call" is legally presented.

Mr. McCANDLESS—You're right. That's the rule.

Mr. HARE—Is it not in the Select Council.

The clerk of Select Council was summoned and said that he had no "call" in his possession; had never seen it. But that Select Council was in session.

President BATCHELOR—Well, then as chairman of this Council. I shall have to decide that we cannot proceed with any business. We can't organize until that call is read and entered in the minutes. I make this decision and hold to it because we may, after disposing of this "Chicago Relief Act," perhaps take up the "water ordinance" and we should, in all things, proceed according to our rules.

Mr. COHEN moved to suspend the rules.

President BATCHELOR said the motion was out of order. Councils were not in session, and could not be until this rule for the reading of the call was complied with.

Mr. COHEN said the Finance Committee had called them together and the call could be recorded again.

President BATCHELOR said they could not go on legally without this call was presented.

Mr. EVAN JONES thought the matter a quibble introduced by some members who wanted to dodge voting on the "Chicago Relief Act." He hoped all would meet this matter fairly and stand before the people like men.

President BATCHELOR said he personally intended to vote for the "act," first, last and all the time. But he wanted everything done legally. The meeting could not, according to the rule, be legal unless the rule was complied with.

Finally, after some further discussion, a call, prepared by Col. Phillips, Chairman of the Finance Committe, was handed in from Select Branch, and read, when the President declared the meeting organized. He explained the special business before them was the consideration of the "Chicago Relief Act." It had not yet been presented from Select Council.

Mr. SMITH moved to suspend the rules and take up other business. Carried.

Mr. COHEN offered the following:

WHEREAS, A calamity unparalleled in the history of our country has befallen one of the cities of our Union, bound to us by the common tie of nationality, whereby the once beautiful city of Chicago has faded like the baseless fabric of a vision, and its people are rendered homeless and destitute of clothing and fuel, and,

WHEREAS, This terrible disaster has occurred at a time when our Councils were to fulfill their acceptance of an invitation from the Baltimore councils to visit that city and partake of their hospitalities; therefore be it

Resolved, That anticipating the sentiments of the Baltimore citizens, whose position as host renders it indelicate for them to take action, we are of opinion that it is not becoming of us as American citizens to indulge in the expenses and luxuries incident to such an occasion, at a time when our fellow-citizens of Chicago are in need of the ordinary necessities of life.

Resolved, That in view of these facts, and regretting the necessity that compels us, yet we deem it prudent to indefinitely postpone our visit to Baltimore, in order that both Pittsburgh and Baltimore may the better be enabled to unite in that glorious outburst of national philanthropy which is rescuing the citizens of Chicago from the awful calamities that surrounded them.

Resolved, That the mayor of our city be requested to forward at once a copy of the resolution to the proper authorities at Baltimore.

Mr. COHEN, in offering the resolutions, strongly supported them in a speech of considerable length.

Mr. ARTHURS moved to lay them on the table.

Mr. WATSON seconded the motion.

Mr. ROWLEY said President Hughart was lying dangerously ill at his residence and would not be able to go with them.

A vote was then taken viva voce, but the President could not decide.

The yeas and nays were then called, with the following result:

Ayes—Arthurs, Black, McGympsey, Brown, Chalmers, Duff, Froelich, Hammond, Kohne, Kyle, Lageman, McKelvy, Meyer, Rosewell, Watson—16.

Nays—Barr, Batchelor, Carroll, Caskey, Cohen, Follansbee, Hare, Jones, Mattern, Morgan, R. H. Negley, W. B. Negley, Price, Rowley, Seiferth, Shoeb, Smith, Snodgrass, Verner, Wallace—21.

Mr. MORGAN moved to amend to instruct the Mayor to correspond with the authorities at Baltimore, and see what arrangements had been made there, and if they could be posponed. He knew the Pittsburgh, Washington and Baltimore Railroad Company had made every preparation for the excursion, and had invited the citizens of Cumberland, Wheeling and other cities, and if they went he thought Pittsburgh should not draw back now, unless they in doing so would stop the whole entertainment. He intended to vote for the appropriation of $100,000 but he thought it was not necessary to stop this excursion unless the whole entertainment was stopped, and the Baltimorians not put to the trouble of receiving any visitors.

At the suggestion of the Chair the amendment was put in writing as follows:

Resolved, That the Mayor of Pittsburgh be requested to correspond, by telegraph, with the Committee on Reception, in Baltimore, to see whether it would be convenient to them to have the visit postponed, or if not convenient will accept the invitation, and leave on Tuesday morning at 7 A. M.

Some discussion ensued.

Messrs. WATSON, McKELVEY, JOHN FLEMING and MORGAN speaking in favor, and Mr. COHEN and others against the amendment.

Finally the matter was suspended to await the action of Select Council.

THE "CHICAGO RELIEF ACT."

The draft of the act authorizing the appropriation of $100,000 for the relief of Chicago was presented as approved in Select Council.

The rules were suspended when Common Council unanimously concurred in the action of Select Council, in the approval of the act.

THE EXCURSION AGAIN.

The action of Select Council in postponing the excursion to Baltimore, was then reported in the Common Branch.

Mr. MORGAN again presented his amendment instructing the Mayor to correspond with the Baltimore authorities.

Mr. COHEN accepted the amendment, thus temporarily withdrawing his resolution until a dispatch could be sent to Baltimore.

The amendment was then adopted.

Mr. HARE moved to adjourn until five o'clock, until Baltimore could be heard from.

Mr. W. B. NEGLEY moved to amend to adjourn until the next regular meeting. Carried

THE ESCAPED NUN.

Miss Edith O'Gorman's Lecture.

This talented and beautiful young lady delivered her third lecture on Saturday evening, at Library Hall, to a very large and evidently well pleased audience, the proceeds thereof having been donated to the relief of the Chicago sufferers. We are candid when we state that she did not inform us of anything concerning the law of the confessional which we did not long ago know. Her lecture was on the subject of the Romish confessional as practiced in the Catholic Church in accordance with its usages from time immemorial. She announced that confession of sin was compulsory on every Catholic, as the Council of Trent excommunicates any Catholic who disregards this duty. Every Catholic after the age of seven years is obliged to go to the confessional at least once a year and as much oftener as his or her sins require it. Every vicious act or thought must be confessed to the priest, who is empowered by virtue of his high office to effect for the sinner, full pardon. The lecturer hinted that oftentimes indelicate questions are put to the penitent, for the purpose, apparently, of assisting in the full confession.

The lecturer stated that she had often prepared the bread for the communion service, which, under the Catholic belief, the priest is empowered to transfer into actual portions of the body of Christ, and as such to administer it to the believers. She had once stated that she could not believe that she was actually eating the body of Christ, and for the assertion had been ordered into confinement for two weeks, without the privilege of speaking to any one. The punishment inflicted by the priests for unbelief or other sins is oftentimes harsh and cruel. The penitent is compelled to wear a girdle next to the body full of sharp, pricking points, which causes great pain. Other severe penalties are inflicted, some of which are extremely severe. She did not appear to have much respect for some of the priests, and mentioned the names of some whom she knew to be intemperate and otherwise immoral. A rather lengthy recital of the histories of different Æcumenical Councils was given, ending with the last one, at which the dogma of the infallibility of the Pope was decreed. She stated that if there were any Catholics in power in heaven she did not want to go there. She closed by thanking her audiences in Pittsburgh for free speech and fair-play. The lady lectures again on Wednesday afternoon to ladies only at La Fayette Hall, and on Thursday evening to the public generally, at Library Hall, when she will explain the mass and other Catholic ceremonies. She will also explain how she became a convert to Protestantism, and will reply to the letters in the Pittsburgh Post.

On Wednesday evening she will lecture at Library Hall, East Liberty, on "Life in a Convent." We advise as many of our readers as can conveniently do so, to go and hear her. She is a pleasing speaker.

THE WATER QUESTION.

Large Meeting in the Thirteenth Ward.

There was a large meeting of citizens at the Thirteenth Ward School House, Saturday evening, in reference to the water question. The meeting was presided over by Mr. John Harrison, with Mr. Charles McCutcheon as Secretary. Resolutions were passed strongly urging the members of Councils to pass the Water Ordinance, and also asking for additional fire alarm boxes in the "Minersville District." The following named gentlemen were appointed a Committee to lay the resolutions before Councils, and to urge a compliance with the requests contained in the same: Messrs. E. P. Jones, Isaiah Dickey, Robert Arthurs, Joseph Lowry, R. G. Herron, and Col. Lehman. The meeting then adjourned till next Saturday evening.

THE MISSION OF KINDNESS.

Aid for Chicago—The Subscriptions Still Coming in—What Our Cities are Doing—The Work of Charity Around us—Organized Efforts—The Churches—Appeals from the Pulpit—Responses from the Congregations.

We are glad to be able to note that the charitable efforts of the Pittsburgh people are yet earnestly directed in aid of the houseless and impoverished citizens of the stricken city. The helping hand of Charity extended by our citizens to Chicago in her hour of misfortune and of need, and especially the noble action of our City Councils in passing without dissent, the ordinance appropriating $100,000 for the relief of the sufferers, will ever be a bright chapter upon the page of our city's history. Let the work of succor and relief then still progress until the present misery of the destitute be relieved, and their future want fully provided for.

Saturday's work was fully up to that of the preceding days and the contributions in articles of all kinds were large and valuable. The Mayor's office was in a perfect bustle of excitement and all the attachees of the office were kept busily at work, seconding the vigerous efforts of their worthy chief, whose exertions are untiring.

THE TRUSTEES' MEETING.

The Trustees met as usual on Saturday morning, Mayor Brush presiding. The business transacted was chiefly the hearing of the reports of the Committees on Arrivals and Theatrical Entertainments. The former reported that two or three hundred more sufferers had been fed at the Union Depot Hotel. The latter reported with regard to that Mr. Aims, manager of Trimble's Varieties, had already given an entertainment which had realized about $200. Manager Beamer stated to the committee that next Wednesday evening's performance at his Fifth Avenue Opera House would be for the benefit of the fund. Mr. Ellsler proposes a benefit next Wednesday afternoon for the same purpose. The Managing Committee for Library Hall tendered that auditorium for any thing but a dramatic entertainment at any time it might be wanted. Mr. McClurg offered the Academy of Music as soon as the alterations and improvements were completed. Masonic Hall was also offered to the committee, and will probably be occupied next Tuesday or Wednesday by the O. B. Doud dramatic company, whose services were also tendered and accepted by the committee. Mr. Harper presented $140, which had been raised at the Western Pennsylvania Hospital for the fund, but stated that it was the wish of the donors that the money be used to assist the Passavant Hospital, which was burned out in Chicago. The money was received, and it was announced that it would be sent to the committee at Chicago, with instructions that it be used for the purpose requested.

Knap's battery will give a ball for the benefit of the Chicago sufferers, at the Keystone Rink, Allegheny, on Wednesday evening next. Music by Mozart band and figures by Col. Joe Christy. A good attendance is expected.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" will be produced at Odd Fellow's Hall, East Birmingham, on Friday and Saturday evenings next, for the same cause. The hall has been given free.

THE PITTSBURGH DEPOT.

Mayor Brush received a dispatch on Saturday from Mr. Jones as follows:

CHICAGO, ILLS., October 14.

HON. JARED M. BRUSH, Mayor.—Our committee have conferred with the Mayor and relief and aid societies of the city. They request you to establish a depot in Pittsburgh for storage of supplies of all kinds to be held subject to their advice. Money should be held subject to draft, as needed. What will soon be needed is coal, stores, and clothing of all kinds for winter wear. Tell our ladies that all kinds of warm under-clothing, stockings, &c., for children are needed now, and the sooner supplied the better. There is much suffering among the poorest classes who have lost their all. If our citizens could have witnessed the sights shown this morning—the thousands of women and children temporarily housed in churches and other large buildings, all without proper clothing, and daily to be fed and cared for—their symathies would have been arroused to renewed efforts to relieve this mass of suffering humanity. There are temporary supplies here sufficient to last a week or ten days to come, but the desire is to provide for the future; hence, the suggestion to have a depot in our city from which supplies can be drawn as needed.

J. HARVEY JONES,
Chairman of Committe.

BANKERS IN COUNCIL.

At a meeting of the Directors of the different bank boards, on Saturday a resolution was passed that the National Banks give one thousand dollars each, the smaller institution from two to three hundred. We hope to hear a good report from our Dollar Savings Bank. They have some three hundred thousand dollars of a surplus fund belonging to no one, and now would be a good time to show their generosity and give at least ten thousand dollars to the poor of Chicago.

RETURN OF THE FIREMEN.

The Pittsburgh firemen returned home on Saturday evening on a special train. Their labors at Chicago were arduous and effective.

The Churches Yesterday.

In the sermons delivered at the churches yesterday, the Chicago fire was referred to, and appeals made in behalf of the sufferers. These appeals were liberally responded, several thousand dollars having been contributed by the various congregations of this city, Allegheny and the South Side boroughs.

REV. A. B. LEONARD, of Smithfield street M. E. Church, delivered an eloquent discourse, his theme being the great calamity in Chicago. The text selected was Job XIV—19: "And Thou destroyest the hope of man." The speaker said the author of the text was not a stranger to the rougher experiences of life. His wealth had been destroyed by the fires of heaven; his family had been smitten by disease; friends had forsaken him in the hour of his greatest need, even the wife of his bosom advising him to curse God and die. Such a man was well prepared to write the great truth embodied in the words of the text.

Hope, said the speaker, is one of the most potent inspirations of life. It renders man capable of the accomplishment of the miracles of human skill and enterprise we see everywhere around us. But hope may be and is taken from us by various means. We have fortunes to-day; to-morrow they are gone. We have good characters to-day; the tongue of slander assails and destroys them to-morrow. Proud cities lift their glittering fronts toward heaven all over the land to-day; to-morrow they are laid low by fire or storm.

This has been vividly illustrated within the past few days in the almost total destruction of the great city of Chicago by a conflagration unparalleled in modern times. The burning of Moscow, the great fires in New York, Portland, San Francisco, were not as destructive of life or property. Rome was an ocean of flame, London was swept by the terrible element; but neither of these disasters vied with that of Chicago. In vain we search the records of the past for a parallel.

After commenting at length upon the terrible disaster, the speaker inquired, "What are we to learn from this great calamity? In the light of God's word I regard it as providential. We look back over the history of the past, but find no destruction so swift and terrible. The cities of the plain, Babylon, Jerusalem, the capital of God's chosen people, were destroyed on account of the prevalence of sin among the people. God deals with the people to-day as he did in ancient times. Everything that occurs is designed by God. I do not want to be understood as believing in foreordination. Some things occur contrary to what God desires. In this instance the city was prepared for the conflagration. Had the rain which fell on Monday night fallen a few hours sooner, or had the wind which swept through the streets and fanned the flames ceased a little sooner, the fire would have been easily subdued. But rain was withheld and the winds were not stayed.

What good God designs to bring out of this calamity we do not yet know—we only know in part. As before observed Chicago had intimate business relations with every portion of the civilized world, and there is not a community in Europe or America, or even the far East, that has not felt the shock of the loss of its loss. God could not have brought destruction upon any city that would have been so universally felt or whose calls for help would have been so generally heeded. It has opened a fountain of human sympathy for suffering which will result in drawing individuals, communities, and nations into closer fraternal relations and christian fellowships. We are also to learn that man's skill cannot contend with God's power. The fire departments of many cities were there battling with the flames, but their progress was not stayed until the work of destruction was complete—until the proud, beautiful city was a mass of ruins.

But there is another thing to be considered. It was a city of show. The glitter of tinsel was every where visible. There was nothing substantial about it. And this danger threatens the whole land. Men strain every energy to acquire wealth. Religion is neglected. Dependence upon God is lost sight of by men in their eager scramble for earthly honors. This is displeasing to God. Let the nation take warning, lest the calamity which overwhelmed Chicago do not speedily visit and overthrow it. God's judgments are not forever withheld.

Some of the good which God designs to result from this dispensation of His providence is already apparent. It has opened up feelings of sympathy and benevolence which were closed before.

Every community has properly responded with large contributions of food, clothing and money. It has warmed our hearts, established more friendly relations, made us a band of brothers in the good work of ministering to the destitute. Again, it will teach us the insecurity of every earthly treasure—which are perishing, all passing away—and cause us to lay up treasure in heaven, which alone is secure. If we thus look upon it it will make us better men, better citizens, better Christians. This is plainly God's purpose. God grant that it may lead to think less of our worldly possessions and more about the condition of our immortal souls.

At the conclusion of the sermon a collection was take up for the benefit of the Chicago sufferers, which realized a handsome amount.

ALLEGHENY.

An adjourned meeting of the citizens of Allegheny was held on Saturday evening, in the Common Council Chamber, Mr. W. C. Cooper in the chair.

Mr. Jennings from the First ward, reported subscriptions up to the present time, to the amount of $1,072; and also read the following note:

W. C. COOPER, ESQ.

DEAR SIR: Enclosed please find a check for the sum of two hundred and seventy-five dollars as a contribution from the employes of the Pittsburgh Locomotive and Car Works, for the relief of the Chicago sufferers. The donors wish that this sum be added to the Allegheny Fund,

Yours truly,
W. MILLER.

The chair reported that Dr. Hostetter and Mr. Smith, his partner, had each given $100 in Allegheny city, in addition to the $1,000 given by the firm in Pittsburgh.

HOW THE FUNDS HAVE BEEN EXPENDED.

He also reported that the Executive Committee had purchased over 200 bed comforts: 100 dozen pairs of men's socks; 5 dozen children's woolen suits; 25 dozen pairs ladies stockings; 600 heavy undershirts; 600 woolen drawers; 10 dozen women's skirts; 8 dozen children's shawls; 10 dozen over jackets for men; 196 assorted shoes for children; 180 pairs women's shoes; 600 pairs boy's shoes and 600 pairs of men's shoes. He thought another car load of clothing and provisions and 5 car loads of coal would leave during the night.

The Chair read a communication from the Allegheny telegraph operator in which he stated that he had received dispatches from Minnesota to the effect that there and rapidly spreading, and that the suffering of the inhabitants of the portion of the State burned were very great.

Mr. W. M. Claney moved that the citizens of Allegheny be requested to meet on Monday night to appropriate a certain portion of the money on hand for the sufferers of Minnesota.

Mr. Leggate moved as an amendment that the citizens meet to take into considerat on of the propriety of appropriating a certain sum. Carried.

PROVISION FOR REFUGEES.

Mr. Callery wanted to know whether any provision was being made for any refugees from Chicago.

Mr. Claney moved that a Committee of five be appointed to take charge of all refugees from Chicago, and relieve them out of the funds of the Executive Committee.

Mr. Callery, Mr. Glenn and Mr. McGonnigle Secretary of Poor Directors, Chief of Police Clark and Mr. George B. McLain, were appointed as the Committee.

On motion adjourned until Monday night at 7½ o'clock.

SAFE DEPOSIT COMPANY,
PITTSBURGH, October 14, 1871.

In order that the citizens of Pittsburgh and its surroundings, may be fully made aware how invaluable this institution is, and what perfect security it affords, I publish a list of interrogatories propounded by me to that well-known, careful and reliable architect, Joseph W. Kerr, Esq., and his replies thereto, and respectfully commend its careful perusal to the public.

S. F. VAN BONNHORST.
Treasurer and Secretary.

PITTSBURGH, October 12th, 1871

S. F. Van Bonnhorst Esq., Treasurer and Secretary of the Safe Deposit Company, of Pittsburgh, Pa.:

DEAR SIR: Your inquiry as to the fire-proof qualities of your building and vaults has been considered, and I feel warranted in answering as follows:

"First—If a like disastrous fire to that which has occurred at Chicago were to take place in Pittsburgh, would it be possible to burn the Safe Deposit Company building?"

Answer—No! Nothing more than the doors and windows on Fourth avenue, which would amount to nothing, the windows in the rear being all protected by fire-proof outside shutters.

"Second—Could the vaults of the Safe Deposit Company, or their contents, be damaged or affected by any conflagration in this city?"

Answer—They could not; as, independent of their being in a fire-proof building, the vaults are so constructed as to prevent any fire from making an impression on them.

Respectfully submitted, J. W. KERR.

Amusements.

PITTSBURGH OPERA HOUSE.—Mr. Lawrence Barrett, the eminent young actor, will open his second week at this house with the new society comedy, "Saratoga." The piece had a tremendous run in New York and Philadelphia, and is greatly lauded by the press. Manager Ellsler has attended in person to the details of placing "Saratoga" before our play-goers, and we are assured that the scenery and other appointments are magnificent. We bespeak for the piece a successful run. Wednesday afternoon a matinee will be given in aid of the Chicago sufferers, the entire proceeds of which will be given to the "Relief Fund."

FIFTH AVENUE OPERA HOUSE.—This evening Mr. E. T. Stetson, an actor of great merit, will commence an engagement, opening with the thrillingly sensational drama of "Neck and Neck." The piece was produced here last season, at which time it attracted immense houses. The startling situations with which it abounds, including, as they do, a scene representing an execution, render the play most intensely interesting from first to last. Wednesday afternoon a matinee will be given for the benefit of Chicago.

Lawrence Barrett in Saratoga.

Pittsburgh and Castle Shannon R. R. Co.

Among the thousand projects devised by human wit for ameliorating the condition of the overflowing population of these cities, and promoting at once their comfort and prosperity, we know of none that is so well adapted to secure beneficent results as the project of the Castle Shannon Railroad and Land Company. At first, before we had apprehended the whole of the bold and ingenious design of the Company, while we admired the topography of the 1,000 acres of land to be subdivided into town lots, we feared they would not sell, because of the intermediate hill, rendering them so difficult of access, but since we learned that this high obtrusive hill was not to be overcome, but to be pierced by a tunnel through which the company's trains of passenger cars will pass every half hour, the whole intense merit, the sure prestige of success stood revealed. Now we see the thousand acres of charming surface which before, the hill had made invisible—almost inaccessible—now in near proximity, easy of access, and to become the home, ere long, of ten thousand happy families. Now we see, or foresee, a populous city on the company's grounds, and while a fortune has been realized from the sale of these suburban homes, the lucky share holders continue making other fortunes out of the coal which underlies them all, and which in the sale of lots, has been reserved. The enterprise is one of the boldest, most ingenious and beneficial within our knowledge, and possesses the elements of assured success. The stockholders cannot fail to gather a rich harvest of profits from their wise investments in this exceedingly clever and promising enterprise. We only wish we had the means wherewith to purchase all the unsold shares.

Fare to Saratoga—Fifty cents.

Buy a Weed, and you will have the most simple, useful, durable sewing machine in use, free from complicated machinery, from "fits," spells, and all unpleasantness. You may get it with the assurance that the best is the cheapest, and the cheapest is the Weed. All we ask is a call and careful examination at 116 Market street, to convince the most sceptical. tf

Saratoga—Monday night.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.

CAPT. JOHN C. BRAINE, who figured conspicuously in the Confederate navy during the rebellion, is going to tell New Orleans what he knows about "the late war"

A CORONERS jury held an inquest over the body of Edward Dabney, in Richmond, Virginia, on Saturday last, and rendered a verdict that the deceased came to his death by the excessive use of bad whiskey.

THE police arrested Captain J. P. Coghlan, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, and Mr. G. W. Royster, of Richmond, Va., on Saturday last, on the charge of "about to break the peace by engaging in a duel."

THE military have arrested thirteen citizens of Kemper county, Mississippi, living near Schooba, charged with having destroyed the goods of J. P. Gilmer, who was in custody for having taken part in the killing of Hal. Dawson.

Two negroes named Nelson Evans and Paul Jones had a difficulty about the wife of the latter, at Little Sand Hill, near Augusta, Ga., on Sunday, during which Jones shot Evans in the neck with a shot gun. The wounds inflicted are supposed to be fatal.

THE Atlanta Constitution of Tuesday says: "On Saturday a grindstone, weighing 1,500 pounds, at the foundry of Messrs. Withers & Sones, in this city, burst, and fragments weighing from 300 to 600 lbs. were thrown off. No one was hurt except a negro man."

THE Vicksburg Times and Republican of Sunday says: "During the last week in this county and city have occurred two murders, one suicide, three fires, twenty-one arrests; besides four persons have been bitten by mad dogs, one of which proved fatal."

MEREDITH THOMAS, while hunting squirrels near Greenton, Mo., a few days since, climbed a high tree for the purpose of shaking down a squirrel which he had shot, and which had lodged on a limb. He shook himself out, instead of the coveted animal, and broke both of his legs.

Tricks by Jugglers.

A traveler at Kinsai was entertained by the Viceroy, the Amir Kustai, and this was one of the amusements:

"That same night a juggler appeared, who was one of the great Kaan's slaves, and the Amir said to him: 'Come and show us some of your wonders.' Upon this he took a wooden ball with seven holes in it, through which long thongs were passed, and laying hold of one of them, slung it into the air. It went so high that we lost sight of it altogether. (It was the hottest season of the year, and we were outside in the middle of the palace court.) There now remained only a short end of a thong in the conjurer's hand, and he desired one of the boys who assisted him to lay hold of it and mount. He did so, climbing by thong, and we lost sight of him. The conjurer then called to him three times, but getting no answer, he snatched up a knife, as if in a great rage, laid hold of the thong, and disappeared in his turn. By-and-by he threw down one of the boy's hands, then a foot, then the other hand and the other foot, then the trunk, and, last of all, the head! Lastly, he came down himself, puffing and blowing, and with his clothes all bloody, kissed the ground before the Amir, and said something to him in Chinese. The Amir gave some order in reply, and our friend then took the lad's limbs, laid them together in their places, and gave a kick, when presto! there was the boy, who got up and stood before us! All this astonished me beyond measure."

THE statement has been made that the Khedive of Egypt had become weary of the American officers in his army, and meant to give them permanent leave of absence. A letter from one of them to a gentleman in New York, states that the story is "a blasted British yarn, and that the Khedive has given no intimation of any such purpose." The writer further says that his pay doesn't amount to much, but living is comparatively cheap, and it is as good a passport in modern Egypt to be an American citizen as it was in ancient days to be a citizen of Rome.

LOUISVILLE
CEMENT.
The Best--The Cheapest.
The Cement has acquired the reputation as the first in the country in hydraulic strength and uniform reliability.
It is now in general use from the lakes to the Gulf, most of the public works in the West and South being constructed with it.
The mills at Louisville having been enlarged and improved, can supply any demand, and though the Cement has always, for 30 years brought higher prices than competing brands, it is from this time the determination of the manufacturers, in order to largely increase the sale and extend the use of their Cement, to furnish it in the principal markets at prices which make it the most available and economical for all classes of work.
The large capacity of this Cement for taking sand renders it much the cheapest that can be used for buildings of any kind.
At the reduced prices in Pittsburgh its cost is not much above common lime, which makes it unquestionably to the interest of owners and builders that the foundation of every good house should be laid in this Cement.
A large stock of fresh Cement has just been received by barges from Louisville, and is offered at greatly reduced prices by the following dealers:
